

Couple marries in Nebraska

Jacey May Lans and Austin Klemm were married at 6 p.m. Saturday, Aug. 6, 2011 in the front yard of the bride's parents' rural Lexington, Neb., home with the Rev. Eric Biehl presiding.

The bride was escorted down the aisle by her father. She wore a strapless ivory floor-length gown.

The matron of honor was Jillian Dowdy, sister of the bride from Gothenburg, Neb. Bridesmaids were Da'Lacy Lans, sister-in-law of the bride of Lexington, Neb., Kelsey Ondrak of Seattle, Wash. and Chanel Whittington of Grand Island, Neb.

They wore dark purple sundresses with black and white zebra print sashes. The bride's personal attendants were Emily Klemm and Jessica Klemm, sisters of the groom of Goodland.

The flower girls were Jordan and Joslynn Lans, nieces of the bride of Lexington, Neb.

The groom wore an ivory shirt, black vest, black pants and a black cowboy hat.

Best man was Justin Lans, brother of the bride of Lexington, Neb. Groomsmen were Seth Ackerman of Brewster, Nick Taylor of Phillipsburg and Kyle Ackerman of Brewster. The ring bearer was Jacob Lans, nephew of the bride. They wore Caribbean blue western shirts with black pants and black cowboy hats.

There was a vase of yellow roses in memory of the bride's brother Jason Lans, the groom's grandmother Hildie Klemm and grandfather Earl Running.

Musicians were Emily and Jessica Klemm. At the guest table were Meghan McKeone, Tawny Eggleston, Rebecca Rickertsen, Michelle Angulo and Yvonne Angulo. Gift attendants were Liz Maloley and Rachel Biehl, cousins of the bride.

Videographer for the wedding was Justin Dowdy, brother-in-law of the bride.

A reception supper and dance were held following the ceremony at the Family Center in Overton, Neb. The bride and groom drove a 1973 Kenworth belonging to the bride's brother pulling the bridal party behind. Hosts were Paul and Lori Maloley, uncle and aunt of the bride, and Ed and Toni Ackerman.

Reception servers were Tracy Biehl, Alisa Margritz and Jennifer Riddell, aunts of the bride, and Sandy Running, Kris Running, Karen Van Loo and Susan Slaughter, aunts of the groom.

The bride is the daughter of Lynn and Janice Lans of Lexington, Neb., and the groom is the son of Ken and Laurie Klemm of Goodland. In attendance were the bride's grandparents, Jim and Marilyn Biehl and Norman and Jonelle Lans, all of Lexington, Neb. and grandparents of the groom, Dorothy Running of Eau Claire, Wis., and Joseph Klemm and Cindy Hodges of Keithville, Ky.

Is it time to adjust your game plan?

I got the opportunity to listen to bestselling author Andy Andrews speak this past weekend. He told us the conference was our "halftime." The first half was done. And while we can't change it, we can learn from it. It was time to evaluate how we've done and adjust our game plan as needed for the second half. We may be down, but the game's not over.

I want to challenge you the same way he challenged us at the conference. This is your halftime for your business. What has worked? What hasn't worked? What will you do

Light pruning fine for this time of year

Recently, I have received several of calls from gardeners wanting to cut back shrubs. Though light pruning and removal of dead wood are fine this time of year, severe pruning should be left until spring. Keep in mind that even light pruning of spring-blooming shrubs such as lilac and forsythia will reduce flowers for next year.

We normally recommend that spring-bloomers be pruned after flowering.

Shrubs differ in how severely they can be cut back. Junipers do not break bud from within the plant and therefore should be trimmed lightly if you wish to keep the full shape.

Overgrown junipers should be removed. On the other hand, there are certain shrubs that can be pruned back severely during the spring. Rejuvenation is the most severe type of pruning and may be used on multi-stem shrubs that have become too large with too many old branches to justify saving the younger canes.

All stems are cut back to 3- to 5-inch stubs. This works well for spirea, forsythia, pyracantha, ninebark, Russian almond, little leaf mock orange, shrub roses, and flowering quince. Just remember that spring is the correct time to do this.
