Jingle bell runners make inaugural foray

A group of about 20 people participated in the first Jingle Bell Fun Run on Saturday afternoon sponsored by the Goodland Arts Council.

The sun was out with temperatures hovering around 40 degrees with a light wind out of the north when the groups gathered at the Goodland Activities Center as the starting point for the Jingle Bell Run. Each runner had a colorful santa hat with their team number, and had jingle bells tied to their shoes.

There was some confusion about where the runners would go on their trip down Main to 17th. The decision was to run down the sidewalk and be careful at the intersections.

Krista Hamilton got everyone lined up and did the countdown to start and then joined her husband Mike and family in the run.

Luke Hamilton came to rescue as another runner got a cramp in her side and he stopped and waited until her companion showed up.

at 3 p.m. before the Santa parade that began at 4 p.m.

Mike Hamilton said it did not feel real cold running down Main, but a few minutes after getting to the finish line at 17th he could feel the cold. He said he was glad he could get a ride back to his car at the GAC and didn't have to walk back north on Main into the wind.

Younger said it was a good start for the first time, and hopes to work out more details for next year.

Like puzzles? Then you'll love sudoku. This mind-bending puzzle will have you hooked from the moment you square off, so sharpen your pencil and put your sudoku savvy to the test!

Here's How It Works:

Sudoku puzzles are formatted as a 9x9 grid, broken down into nine 3x3 boxes. To solve a sudoku, the numbers 1 through 9 must fill each row, column and box. Each number can appear only once in each row, column and box. You can figure out the order in which the numbers will appear by using the numeric clues already provided in the boxes. The more numbers you name, the easier it gets to solve the puzzle!

Mavericks place two at open

The Maverick wrestling team showed some signs of life as two placed in the ever tough Old Chicago Open Saturday.

Miguel Guzman 3-1 placed sixth at 125 pounds and would've placed higher, but we withdrew him with what most likely a broken pinkie finger, said Coach Steve Lampe.

Alex Ievtushenko placed sixth as well going 3-3 on the day. Alex is having a struggle learning Folkstyle wrestling as he has had no previous experience with the unique style which is American only, Lampe said. If I ever get him into seven-minute shape he'll be a legitimate competitor in our West Central Region.

He'll certainly test my coaching abilities as will most of this team, Lampe said.

Overall we have no super stars and guys who have never been on great teams. They do not know what it takes to be a winner at USA's collegiate level. Most of the time opponents are their best teacher. I call it the "awakening."

It's when athletes get shocked into the real world of reality and realize they've got to work more intensely and learn more or get lost in the dust of those who are willing and able. It's an all star dual team or tournament field every date on our schedule.

I saw some real improvement this week after 5 weeks of frustrating practices, he said. I think after the University of Northern Colorado tournament we have the potential of qualifying five for the national finals. It's going to take a lot of work and luck but the potential is here.

At 133 Justin Rascon went 0-2, 141 Brett Terrell went 0-2, 157 De'Andre Arnold went 0-2, Dault Alieve went 1-2, 165 Jaurex Vasquez was winless, 174 Cody Harris 1-2 (looked very promising), Alex Ievtushenko 184 went 3-3 and placed 6th.

At 197 Dion Harris had a good day at 2-2 but didn't place, Jason Troyer Troyer 285 wrestled in his first tournament getting pinned twice and rounding out Northwest Tech participation at 125 and 133 twins Chris Chavez and Michael Chavez both went 0-2 and out.

Our team is on Thanksgiving break this week and will return for a very tough exhibition dual at 6 p.m. on Thursday with Division II University of Southern Colorado of Pueblo at Keirns Fitness Center.
