

Ozark Jubilee

Country group to play in Colby

The award-winning Ozark Jubilee is coming direct from Branson, Mo., to provide a Country Christmas Show!

Showtime is at 2 p.m. (Mountain Time) Sunday, Dec. 11, in the Colby High School Auditorium. Comedian and world-class violinist, Randy Newman, (also known as Doofus Doolittle,) will be headlining the show. He's fiddled alongside stars such as Ronny Milsap and Mel Tillis!

The Ozark Jubilee show is filled with country standards such as bluegrass and gospel music. This unique blend of classic country music and hillbilly humor will leave audiences with lasting memories. Don't miss Branson's own Ozark Jubilee! Admission is with Western Plains Arts Association season ticket or at the door, $20 for adults and $10 for student from kindergarten through 12.

Local winner places third at district

The winner of the Patriot's Pen contest by the Lowell Coleman Post 1133 Jamie Nemechek, also won third place at the district level. Other winners on the local level were Anthony Hernandez in second and Dani Mangus in third.

The Patriot's Pen contest is a written essay open to grades six to eight. It needed to be 300 to 500 words long and on the theme "Are you proud of your country?"

The first place winner on the district level was Kirsten Zerr of Grinnell and the second place winner was Josh VanLaey of Logan.

The local winner of the Voice of Democracy contest was Nicole Hendrich, daughter of John and Kelly Hendrich. The three to five minute speech was on "Is there pride in serving in our military? Her speech was forwarded to the district level and won at district level. Taylor Tustin of Gove was second and Lacey Ostmeyer of Oakley was third.

The state winner will be announced at the Department Mid-Winter conference on Saturday, Jan. 14, at Topeka. The state winner receive a $1,000 scholarship, a trip to Washington, D.C., and that winner is advanced to the national level for a chance to win the top prize of a $30,000 scholarship.

Museum to exhibit photographs

The Dane G. Hansen Memorial Museum is pleased to present "Gordon Parks: Crossroads" a fascinating exhibition that features 45 memorable photographs drawn from all aspects of Parks' storied career will be on display Friday, Dec. 23, through Sunday, Feb. 5.

In 1938 Parks purchased his first camera at a pawn shop. He pursued taking pictures with gusto and within months his probing portraits of African-American women were exhibited in the windows of the Eastman Kodak store in Minneapolis. While Parks pursued numerous hard-hitting documentary assignments for Stryker, he also accepted commissions in fashion and glamour photography, initially for Midwestern department stores, and soon for Vogue and Glamour magazine.

Parks became the first black staff photographer at Life magazine in 1949, where he would remain on the masthead for a quarter century. With his first two photo-essays for Life - on the gang wars of Harlem, and on the latest Paris collections - he announced his remarkable range. His intimate photo essays on the Black Panthers, the nascent Black Muslim movement, and the Rev. Martin Luther King JR.'s death remain classics - "my sentiments lay in the heart of black fury sweeping the country," he later wrote - but equally classic were his extended photo-portraits of cultural icons as varied as Barbara Streisand, Langston Hughes, Alexander Calder, Ingrid Bergman, Duke Ellington and Muhammad Ali. "Success among whites never made Parks lose touch with black reality." Malcolm X wrote in his autobiography.

Museum Hours are Monday through Friday 8-11 & 12-3; Sat. 8-11 & 12-4; Sunday and holidays 12-4. All times are Mountain Time. We are handicapped accessible and there is never an admission fee. For more information contact Shirley at 785-689-4846 or check out our web at www.hansenmuseum.org.

ATTENTION LENNOX PULSE FURNACE OWNER

Pulse Furnace customers: As of October 1, 2011, a number of replacement parts for these furnaces can no longer be purchased. If you own a Pulse Furnace and need repairs, we may not be able to repair it. We have some parts in stock and are keeping parts off used furnaces that we may be able to use to repair yours.

Under the Lennox Pulse program, if the installation date is less than 20 years or you are the original owner (proof of ownership will be required), a new Lennox furnace will be offered to you at a reduced cost.

Please contact Plains Heating for more information, or if you would like a bid on a new furnace. Toll free (800) 678-2914.
