Bernard Eldon "Pete" Whalen
 Bernard Eldon "Pete" Whalen passed away at the age of 82 in his home in Friendswood, TX on May 31, 2012. He was born in Bennett, NE to Bud and Mary Whalen. He married Marietta Nett on Sept. 1, 1956. In 1957 he graduated from University of Creighton after his time in the United States Navy from 1948-1953. He received his Doctorate of Jurisprudence from the University of Kansas in 1960. He and his wife moved to Goodland, Kan. in 1960, where they established a home and raised their children. He loved every moment he spent in Goodland. He was a leader in their community and the Catholic Church. Pete served on city, hospital, church and school boards throughout his time in Goodland. His purpose in life was to serve God, be a loving husband, a good father and provide for his family to the best of his ability. He is survived by his wife Marietta, his sister Wilma, his children, John Thomas, Loretta Sue Hennigan, and Daniel Joseph, along with his three grandchildren Ashley Nemer-Brown, Ryan Nemer, and Eric Whalen. The service will be held in Friendswood, TX, where his wife, daughter and grandchildren live, on June 11, 2012. Please send flowers to Crowder Funeral Home, Webster, TX, or donations to Our Lady of Perpetual Help Catholic Church in Goodland, or donations to the Goodland Regional Medical Center-Foundations in Pete's honor. He lived a full and happy life and touched many people of this world. The one phrase he will be remembered for is, "Pray for the Irish."
