

Store gets new look

The Goodland Church's Thrift Store had a grand re-opening on Thursday afternoon to show off the recent re-organization of the store and introduce its new managers. There were drawings where people could win Thrift Store bucks. Wayne and Tammy Durham are the new managers. They are located at 1002 Main and their hours are 9 a.m. to 6 p.m. Tuesday through Friday and 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. Saturday.

Senior wins scholarship at community college

Goodland High School senior Cassie Battistoni has been selected to receive a Presidential Scholarship at Colby Community College.

Candidates for this award are nominated by their high school counselors.

The Presidential Scholars are selected on the basis of leadership, academic achievement, and potential for contribution to the college.

Presidential Scholars are expected to be leaders and serve as positive examples for the entire student body.

They represent the Office of the President and are responsible for a number of campus activities.

The Presidential Scholars program is designed to prepare young men and women for future leadership through active participation and service.

Battistoni plans to major in nursing. She is the daughter of Jackie Battistoni of Goodland.

Book discussion to be held at library on woman's journey

Diane Quantic of Derby will lead the book discussion of "A Lady's Life in the Rocky Mountains" by Isabella Bird at 6:30 p.m. on Thursday at the Goodland Public Library, 812 Broadway.

This is the final book in a four-part "Westering" series describing a Victorian woman's horseback journey through the Rocky Mountains in 1873.

Quantic is retired from teaching English at Wichita State University. She received her Ph.D. in literature from Kansas State University at Manhattan. She has been leading discussions since 1988.

The series is sponsored by the Kansas Humanities Council as part of its Talk About Literature in Kansas. The council's resource center is furn ishing the books and leaders for the discussions.

corrections

A headline on Page 1 of the Friday, March 23, edition of The Goodland Star-News inaccurately said charges had been filed in the death of a Goodland man several weeks ago. As of Thursday, the case had gone to the Thomas County Attorney, but charges had not been yet been filed.

The accurate information appeared in the story. This was an editing error.

History grants available

The Kansas Historical Society announced that the application deadline for its academic and non-academic research grants is Sunday, April 15. Grants are intended to help defray expenses while conducting research at the Historical Society in Topeka.

The Alfred M. Landon Historical Research Grant is presented annually to graduate students researching at the State Archives, Kansas Museum of History or the historical society's archeology collections. The total amount available is $1,000 to be used between Sunday, July 1, and June 30, 2013. Funds are provided by an endowment established in memory of Gov. Landon.

The Edward N. Tihen Historical Research Grant is presented annually to non-academic researchers to use the collections at the Historical Society. The total amount available is $500 to be used between July 1 and June 30, 2013. Money is from the Tihen Endowment, established in appreciation of his role as an amateur historian.

Further information and applications for both of these programs are available online at www.kshs.org/p/research-grants/15798.
