Jim and Avis Alcorn

Couple to celebrate 45 years of marriage

Jim and Avis (Elfman) Alcorn will celebrate 45 years of marriage on Monday, May 7, 2012. They exchanged vows on May 7, 1967, at the United Methodist Church in Goodland. The couple has two daughters who live in Goodland, Jamie and her husband Charlie Baker and Calli and Doug McDaniel. They have two grandchildren Ellee and Ethan McDaniel. To help them celebrate their anniversary the family is asking for a card shower. Cards may be sent to 803 W. 8th Street, Goodland.

Mary Jane (Anthis) Karspeck

Mary Jane (Anthis) Karspeck, 84, of Goodland, Kansas, passed away April 28, 2012 at the Good Samaritan Home in Goodland, Kansas with family by her side. She was born on June 18, 1927, the daughter of Charles and Ida (Roberts) Anthis in Cushing, Oklahoma. Mary was the third of five children.

Mary attended the First Christian Church in Cushing and accepted Christ as her Savior on her 13th birthday. Even before being baptized, she was the youngest member singing in the adult choir. Mary loved music, especially singing and playing her violin.

In 1945 Mary graduated from Cushing High School. She attended college at Oklahoma A & M and was a member of Alpha Delta Pi.

On December 8, 1946, Mary and Harold Karspeck were married at the First Christian Church in Cushing, Oklahoma. She and Harold then moved to a farm northwest of Kanorado, Kansas. Moving to an unfamiliar place in Colorado from Oklahoma was quite an adjustment for her.

Mary and Harold had three children, Steven, Kathy Ann and Roger. For thirty years she was a member of St. Paul's Lutheran Church in Burlington, Colorado, where she taught Sunday School, held offices in the ALCW, and sang in and directed the choir for many years. She was a member and officer of the Kanorado GFWC Sorosis Club.

Mary was an avid supporter of her children's activities. She worked as a leader in 4-H talent contests and supported her children in FFA, high school band and sports activities. Along with raising her family, she worked hard doing all the duties of a good farm wife and was known for her excellent cooking and baking abilities.

In 1977 Harold and Mary bought a home in Goodland, Kansas. She had grown to love the farm and now she hated to leave it. They joined the First United Methodist Church in Goodland where Mary led the chancel choir for quite some time, directing many Christmas and Easter cantatas. She became a member in Goodland's GFWC Thetis Club, VFW Auxiliary Post 1133 and was a Northwest Kansas Medical Center Hospital Auxiliary volunteer. Mary was very active in the 6th District of the Kansas Federation of Women's Clubs. She served as Recording Secretary and was elected District President in 1981. She served on and chaired numerous committees on the district and national level.

One of Mary's joys was fishing in the mountains. She always loved it when she caught the biggest and the most fish. She also enjoyed pheasant hunting. Mary loved to go on cruises and travel abroad. She loved to be with her family and grandchildren. "Grannie" was very special to all of them.

She was preceded in passing by her parents, her daughter Kathy Ann Scott, two brothers Floyd and Joe Anthis and one sister Charlene Dungan.

Those mourning her passing are husband Harold of Goodland; their children, Steven and (JoAnn) of Hoehne, CO; Roger and (Deena) of Burlington, CO; son-in-law Bill Scott (Jeanne) of Rapid City, SD; six grandchildren; twelve great grandchildren; her sister Joyce (Clarence) Connor of Artesia, NM; Joe (Carol) Anthis of Oklahoma City, OK; many nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends.

Mary and Harold enjoyed 65 years of married life together and give thanks to God for this blessing.

The funeral will be Wednesday, May 2, at 10:30 a.m. MT, at First United Methodist Church in Goodland, with Reverend Shelly Petz officiating. Burial will follow in the Goodland Cemetery.

Friends may share their respects on Tuesday, from 3-7 p.m. MT, at Koons Chapel in Goodland.

Memorials may be designated to Goodland United Methodist Chancel Choir, and may be left at or mailed to Koons Funeral Home, 211 N. Main, Goodland, KS 67735-1555.
