Women's group holds luncheon for area chapters

The 2012 Spring Reciprocity Luncheon of the Regional P.E.O. Sisterhood was held on Saturday, April 21, 2012 at the Goodland United Methodist Church Fellowship Hall. Local Chapter Z hosted the annual event with representatives from Chapter ID (Goodland), Chapter U (St. Francis), Chapter AX (Atwood), Chapter EX (Oakley), Chapter CE (Colby) and Chapter AX (Burlington) attending.

Brenda McCants, President of 2012 Reciprocity, presided at the event the object of which was to foster fellowship through socializing and updating each chapter's past year's highlights. A new slate of officers for 2012-2013 were proposed and elected. Chapter U of St. Francis will host the 2013 Reciprocity Luncheon sometime in April.

Deborah Lucas, Chapter Z's president, planned and organized this year's event with her committee other members with poise and elegance. The theme of daisies, stars and more was evident in the decorations, table setting, door prizes and favors. The brunch was prepared by W & W

Catering and served by Family, Career and Community Leaders of America under the supervision of Sara Short.

Jeanne Wilde, an author and a Chapter DJ member of Denver, Colo., was the guest speaker who gave an interesting and informative background on how she came about to be interested in writing books. Afterwards, she signed books for those purchasing them. Each P.E.O. member also brought a book to exchange with other sisters.

Chapter Z held its Centennial Celebration in December 2010 at the Sugar Hills Golf Club. In recognition of this milestone, a cookbook appropriately entitled "A Century of Recipes" was compiled by Chapter Z of the P.E.O. Sisterhood to raise funds for the chapter to help with various projects. The new cookbook features recipes from three previous cookbooks and additional recipes from 2010 contributors. It will be a great gift for all occasions.

The P.E.O. Sisterhood is a Philanthropic Educational Organization interested in promoting higher education for women. The sisterhood makes a difference in women's lives with six philanthropies which include a two-year women's college, Cottey College, Nevada, Mo. and five programs that provide higher educational assistance: P.E.O. Educational Loan Fund, International Peace Scholarship, P.E.O. Program for Continuing Education, P.E.O. Scholar Awards and P.E.O. Star Scholarships. P.E.O. is headquartered in Des Moines, Iowa.

Goodland High School girls and area women interested to know more about the above-mentioned P.E.O. Programs may call Sandra Burr (785) 890-5219, Chapter Z's projects chairman.

"A Century of Recipes" cookbooks may be purchased at the Goodland Carnegie Arts Center, the High Plains Museum or the Hayden Outdoors office for $25.
