

Brick work on Main

Construction crews were preparing the Main Avenue construction site for concrete pouring this week. The workers have already hooked up the new water pipes running under the sidewalk, and once the concrete on the street has set, another company will come in to lay the new brick. The contractor told the Goodland City Commission on Monday that the project is on schedule. Photo by Kevin Bottrell/The Goodland Star-News

Hansen Museum to offers painting workshop

The Dane G. Hansen Memorial Museum will be hosting a four day painting workshop with David Vollbracht. Vollbracht will be instructing the class at the Dane G. Hansen Museum, 110 W. Main, Logan. These classes will be held on Wednesday to Saturday, July 11, 12, 13 and 14, and will run from 8 a.m. till 3 p.m. (Mountain Time) with a one hour break for lunch. This learning opportunity is brought to you through the Hansen Museum Continued Education Program and offered at reduced rates to the public. Cost of the workshop is $150 with discounts available for Hansen Museum members. This class will be on the use of photography as a reference material. Special emphasis will be placed on the limitations of photography.

Design, color, values and composition will be explored as well as the more illusive but just as important elements of mood, passion and attitude that can make a good painting better and a better painting great. Intermediate and advanced artists may call (785) 689-4846 for more information or to register by phone.

Vollbracht is a representational landscape painter of the west. His work reflects the quality of light, nature and spirit drawn from the land. For many years he has made trips to various parts of the west to gather reference material for realistic impressions created primarily in oil. Vollbracht is intrigued by the patterns and shapes in nature and concentrates on the effects of light on these elements.

He resides in Medicine Lodge and has earned a degree in art from Fort Hays State University. Vollbracht's knowledge has been nurtured by attending the art workshops of Clyde Aspevig and Wayne Wolfe. He has recently received Signature Membership to Oil Painters of America and has shown his work at numerous shows including: Mountain Oyster Club Show, Tucson, Ariz.; One Man Show Wichita Center for the Arts, Wichita; National Miniature Show, La Luz, N.M.; National Oil Painters of America Exhibitions; and Rocky Mountain Plein Air Show, Winter Park, Colo. . . The museum hours are Monday through Friday 8 to 11 a.m. and noon to 3 p.m.; Saturday 8 to 11 and noon to 4 p.m.; Sunday and holiday noon to 4 p.m. (all times are Mountain Time). We are handicapped accessible and there is never an admission fee. For information call Shirley at (785) 689-4846 or www.hansen-museum.org.

Workshop to stress business destinations

Jon Schallert, the international expert on creating destination businesses, will present his newest workshop, "Business Reinvention: The New Normal on Main Street and Every Street," at the Hansen Museum in Logan on Wednesday, June 20.

The event will bring together business owners and community leaders from across the region, including nearby Phillipsburg where economic development officials say Schallert's teachings have boosted retail sales over 20 percent in less than two years.

The workshop shows independent businesses how to flourish by becoming Consumer Destinations.

Registration for the workshop begins at 6:30 a.m. (Mountain Time) Wednesday, June 20. The event end with a marketing roundtable from noon to 1:30 p.m. (Mountain Time).

Interested owners can register at www.philcofoundation.com or by calling (785) 540-4284.
