

Visits with doctors bring good news

This will be a little different format than the past few weeks. I'm going to have a few happier events to mention.

I was in Colorado most of the week of the 18th for doctor appointments, both of which had good news for me. I'm scheduled for a check up in April, and that may be the last one for about six months if the improvement is as good as this time.

The next checkup would then be on a six month recall for a while. That sounded good to me, so I'm keeping my fingers crossed. Dr. Durbin eased up on some of the restrictions, but I'm still not as free to come and go as I want to be.

The use of the stairs to the family room and utility are still on hold for a few more weeks, and then I can go down provided someone is with me in case I get a little wobbly.

All in all, the doctor was pleased with the healing and said I had been getting good therapy. I must use the brace and walker when I finally get to go out but with reason. He said he knows how women are when shopping, as they "shop 'till they drop," which is a no no for me for a while.

A most interesting phone call came in from Texas. At first, I didn't have any idea who the caller was. It turned out to be a former resident, Dolores (Jones) Peter.

Her first comment was how happy she was to see the return of my column. Many will remember her, as she is a cousin of Wilmer and Loren Bahe and Opal Van Donge and Denelda Tyrell. She is the mother of Billy Jones and Karen Rodriguez and Mrs. Tom Rohr of the glass company.

We had a nice visit, and I want to thank her for her concern about me, her prayers and her compliment on how she enjoys the columns. Calls make it all worth the time and effort. Thank you. She gave me some news that I'm working on, and I will have it in the paper in the very near future. I returned some equipment that the rehab had sent home with me. I had a nice visit with several of the people who helped me while there. The head of the center, Dennis, heard I was in the building, and he came to see me and remind me the job offer was still there, that is, if I would move to Fort Collins. I have no such plans.

Sue from the activity department reminded me of the job she has if I ever want it.

They're great people, and I thank them all for their help in my recovery. I also called a couple who had been there, and they too are now home working on getting well.

The weather was cold and windy with a few flakes of snow, some sprinkles and heavy frost. It was a little icy the day of my appointments, but Martha and Bob were always by my side, especially Bob, who missed four days of not coming to see me through all the time I was there. Martha spends a lot of time doing book work for her son's business in Erie.

I met a former resident while at the doctor's office. Evelyn Scheller works the switchboard at the orthopedic center. She saw the schedule and told Dr. Durbin there was only one person that had a name like mine, and she was going to make sure and meet this person.

We had a very nice visit due to Dr. Durbin giving her some time to visit with me. They were part of the people that moved here with Great Western Sugar at the same time as we did. It was great to see her, and I enjoyed our visit.

I have several other happy, good things that I'll use in future columns. On a sad note, condolences to the family of Mac McGinley. May God be with you all at this time.

I will close for now and see you all next week, God willing.

4-H news

The meeting of the Beaver Valley 4-H Club was on Monday, Jan. 12. There were 14 members, two leaders and six adults present.

The minutes were read by Andrea and were approved as read. Then there were reports from the officers and leader Kim. She announced that she needed all the fruit money from everyone and handed out the new club books.

For new business, it was decided to go skiing Friday-Sunday, March 5-7, at Eldora and to stay at the same motel as last year as long as the pool is open.

For the program, Shelby led the group in the song "Row, Row, Row Your Boat." Ricky V. did a demonstration on rainbow art. Andrea gave safety tips on catching and leading a horse.

The meeting was then adjourned for recreation. Paige led the group in a game of four corners.

When the meeting was called back to order, Hallie announced that the next meeting would be Monday, Feb. 9, and that everyone needed to start thinking about what they want to do for 4-H Days and talent night Friday, March 12.

The meeting was then adjourned, and refreshments were served by the Stone and Christian families.

"Hemorrhoids? Here's what my doctor recommended."

When I first heard about Hemcure - the painless non-surgical hemorrhoid cure - I was skeptical.

So I asked my family doctor about it. He said Hemcure was a treatment method performed by M.D.'s that would solve my hemorrhoid problem, instead of just treating the symptoms.

I decided to go ahead with it, and you know what? Hemcure really worked, without disrupting my schedule. And my insurance covered it. If you have hemorrhoids, don't suffer. Do yourself a favor and call to find out more.
