Neckties get second chance at a useful life

DEARABBY: I read with interest the letter from the lady asking how to recycle her late husband's neckties. My daughter is a 16-year-old honor student who teaches Sunday school and volunteers at our children's hospital. She wears them as belts. — CORPUS PROUD MOM, CHRISTI, TEXAS

DEAR PROUD MOM: Your I printed that letter, I had no idea there them together at the long edges to were so many uses for old neckties. Hundreds of suggestions poured in! Read on for a sample:

"I have a friend who made her prom dress completely out of men's ties she bought from Goodwill. They were sewn together vertically. It was really cool." — JOY IN IRVINE, CALIF.

"She should cut the wide ends 18 daughter is an original thinker. When inches to 20 inches long and sew make a colorful apron. The tapers will give it a nice flair, and the ends can be used for the waistband at the CLARENCE B., CLEMSON, S.C. "Two ladies in our church, St.

Christopher Episcopal in League LIF. City, Texas, gathered old ties from the parish and made them into beautiful altar cloths for use during Father's Day services." — O.H. STELTER JR., HOUSTON

"Old ties can be woven into beautiful, one-of-a-kind area rugs or wall hangings. Incorporated into clothing, they can become wearable art." – SOUTHERN JEANNE S., SHORES, N.C.

"My aunt owned a gorgeous mandarin-style jacket, which she informed me was made entirely from old silk neckties. They were laid side by side, sewn together, then finished off with embroidery overstitching." DEBE, WILLOW GLEN, CA-

"She should use them to make a quilted Christmas wreath. It will become a family heirloom." — GINI M., OSHKOSH, WIS.

'One of the most precious gifts I ever received was a Christmas stocking made for my 6-month-old daughter when her grandfather died. A very special cousin made it from some of his ties for her first Christmas. It's a family treasure." - SHARON IN NEWBERRY PARK, CALIF.

WEDNESDAY EVENING

"Here's an idea: With that many ties, she's bound to have a picture of Grandpa wearing some of them. Why not mount a picture of Grandpa wearing the tie in a frame along with the tie? It would make a wonderful keepsake."—DAYNAINLONGVIEW, TEXAS

"Discarded neckties can be used to make pot holders, table runners, HUNDREDS OF WONDERFUL teddy bears, pocketbooks, tote bags and more." - HENNIE C., FER IDEAS: The dear lady who SPARTANBURG, S.C.

"How about using them to make Christmas tree skirts? Stitch them together in a circle with the points facing outward." - CAROL P., SPARTANBURG, S.C. "I use my husband's cast-off ties to make cases for my jewelry. Working with the wide ends, I cut them in 3inch, 4-inch and 5-inch lengths and stitch them to form pouches. Then I fold the triangle tip down like the flap on an envelope and put a snap on the other side. Voila!" - ANNA MARIAS., SILVER SPRING, MD.

DEARANNAMARIAANDTHE PEOPLE WHO WROTE TO OFwrote asking for ideas is sure to be overwhelmed with your clever uses for ties. (I certainly was.) And if she isn't handy with a needle and thread, she can sell them on eBay or donate them to a thrift shop, or a homeless shelter.
