obituary

Fred Waufle

Alfred Leroy Waufle, 38, a St. Francis truck driver and handyman, died Friday, April 23, 2004, at his home after a long battle with cancer. He was born Dec. 10, 1965, at Alma, Neb., the son of Harold and Deanna Waufle. He was raised in Norton and graduated from Norton Community High School in 1984. Waufle had a hard time reading, but if he was shown how to do something with his hands, he could do it right the first time. He was known as a hard worker and loved to work. He did mechanical work, plumbing, farming and welding and drove a truck.

The thing he like most was driving truck. He loved being on the road, as it afforded him the opportunity to see a lot of the country.

One of Waufle’s favorite destinations was Blaine, Wash. He met a man there once who took him on his yacht. Waufle was also amazed at the number of ships at the shipyard. He told others it was the most beautiful sight he had ever seen.

In 1994, Waufle moved to St. Francis, where he worked for Callicrate Feed Yard for several years.

In 1998, he met Patty Wieck, and a year later, on April 2, 1999, they were married. Both of them knew they had found their soul mates in each other.

Waufle enjoyed hunting, fishing and camping; his favorite was bow hunting. One time he went Elk hunting in Cody, Wyo., with his father. He got his elk but learned a valuable lesson—if you shoot an elk across a canyon, it’s a lot of work to pack the animal across the canyon.

Preceding him in death were his parents and his grandparents, Alfred and Ernestine Kinnie.

Survivors include his wife; his step-daughter, Vanessa Wieck; a sister, Deb (Dan) Bussing of Hays; and a brother, Gary (Melanie) Schultz of Clay Center.

Services were held Tuesday, April 27, 2004, at the St. Francis United Methodist Church with the Rev. Richard Garcia of St. Francis Community Church officiating. Casket bearers were Jim Albers,

Mark Jenik, Charlie Nipps, Roger Neitzel, Jim Wolters and David Rogers. Burial was at Lawn Ridge

Cemetery, rural St. Francis. Arrangements were made by Knodel Funeral Home.
