rabout our de la servicion de

student news

Matthias Goodley, Goodland, a freshman at Bethany College, received the most improved/best effort award at the college's annual banquet Monday, May 3.

Nicole Titus of Goodland and Laran Steele of Weskan received $1,000 scholarships from the Department of Kansas Veterans of Foreign Wars Endowment Association. The scholarships are awarded to selected children and grandchildren of members of the group and its auxiliary. Titus was sponsored by the Sharon Springs post, and Steele by the Tribune post.

activities

Tours of the 1907 Victorian House at 202 W. 13th are from 1-5 p.m. Wednesday-Sundav.

"Kansas Goes to War," a Kansas Humanities Council traveling display; World War I posters from Big Timbers Museum in Lamar, Colo.; and information and photos on the glider school in Goodland during World War II are on display from 9 a.m.-5 p.m. Monday-Friday and from 9 a.m.-4 p.m. Saturday at the High Plains Museum, 1717 Cherry Ave.

The Carnegie Arts Center is open from 10 a.m.-5 p.m. Tuesday through Friday and from 1-4 p.m. Saturday, Sunday and Monday. "Produce for Victory," a traveling Smithsonian Exhibit, is on display through Friday, May 7.

The Goodland Public Library will have story time for 4 and 5year-olds from 10-10:45 a.m. Wednesdays and from 11-11:45 a.m. Thursdays. Story time for 3year-olds will be from 10-10:45 a.m. Thursdays. Born to Read for children birth to age 3 will be at 10 a.m. Fridays.

Emotions Anonymous meets at 7:30 p.m. Wednesdays at the Goodland Regional Medical Center board room.

Century Families, for people whose family came to Sherman County more than 100 years ago, meets at 7 p.m. the second Monday of the month at the Senior Center. For information, call 899-2835.

Aerobics Classes - 7:30 a.m. aerobics classes are offered daily at the Goodland Activities Center. Tena Tompkins leads a step aerobics class at 5:30 a.m. Monday, Wednesday and Friday. On Tuesday and Thursday, a less intense class is offered. Call 890-7242.

TOPS Meetings - Take Off Pounds Sensibly meets at 5:30 p.m. Mondays at North Elementary School. Weigh-in is at 5 p.m.

Big Brothers/Big Sisters of Sherman County is seeking mentors and children to mentor. Call area events

Alcoholics Anonymous S.O.S. Agency on Aging is having an in- globin, family planning and toenail Group meets at 7 p.m. Monday in formation day for all area senior clipping available by appointment. the cafeteria in the basement at the citizens from 10 a.m.-3 p.m. Cen-Sharps containers are available Kit Carson County Hospital in tral Time Thursday at the Grain- free. Call 899-4888.

Sherman County Historical Society

vice will be held in the Catholic Hurd home, that in a rough and

This period of time covers the of buffalo grass, that Taylor pun-

May 11, 1904: Devotional Service at Catholic Church — Forty hours of continuous devotional ser-church beginning at 10:30 a.m. sojourn of the Savior in the tomb. At no time during this service will the church be abandoned; the members will come and go in their worship, relieving each other in their loyal adherence to the Christ. Special music will be prepared for the oc-

May 12, 1904: During the rains and thunder storms of last week, lightning struck in the pasture of Fred Hurd and killed six head of his

May 13, 1904: Under Charge of Assault — T.W. Taylor and Fred

Hurd Have Trouble, and Blows Follow — Sherman county land is becoming valuable. People will even

This happened in the Eversoll-

■TONIGHT AT THE MOVIES

Goodland Star-News

SUBSCRIBER

Brenda Holmes

You receive two free passes to see

Walking Tall

PG-13

Sherman

Present Ticket at Box Office

■ AT THE MOVIES

fight for it.

the calendar

calendar

Bankwest of Kansas, 924 Main, is hosting an exhibit on the history of U.S. currency, featuring historic notes and coins on loan from the Federal Reserve Bank in Kansas City. The display will be available through Friday, June 4. Lobby hours are 9 a.m.-4 p.m. Monday-Friday.

Pizza Hut will donate 20 percent of sales today to the Goodland Baseball Club.

Goodland American Legion Baseball will have its first practice at 6:30 p.m. Thursday at the baseball field.

TNT Singles will meet at 6:30 p.m. Thursday at Edwards Hall for food, cards and games. Call 899-2733.

Adult men's and co-ed softball team registrations will be taken through Friday. Team registration forms can be picked up at the city office, 204 W. 11th. Call 899-mission on Veterans Affairs will be in Goodland from 1-2:15 p.m. Thursday, May 20, in the Assembly Room on the third floor of the courthouse to help veterans and Burlington. Call Pamela at 719-

346-7711, Laura at 785-890-5417

Saturday at 1013 Center. Saturday is an open meeting with Al-Anon, families of alcoholics, meeting in Anonymous, call Rob at 890-3023

or Linda at 399-2353. For Al-Anon,

Fibromyalgia and Chronic third Wednesday of every month in the Emergency Medical Services building, 257 15th St., in Burlington. Call Debbie at 719-346-

Goodland Mothers of Preschoolers (MOPS) meets from 6:30-8 p.m. on the first Monday of the month at the Emmanuel

Guild will meet at 7 p.m. the second Thursday of each month. Call

Cora House at 899-6551, Joan Reid

at 899-7301 or Carol Tupper at 890-today in history tumble fight between F.A. Hurd and T.W. Taylor over the right to a strip ished his antagonist pretty severely.

Mrs. Helen Hurd, wife of Fred intent to kill and that Taylor

Taylor place, four and a half miles northwest of town, Wednesday afternoon and arrested Taylor. The preliminary trial will be held Friday before Justice Floyd. Taylor was released upon his own recognizance and promise to appear for trial

Hurd and Taylor for some time.

Trouble started about a year ago against Taylor for the possession of and went home.

pounded Hurd with a revolver.

Prairie Piecemakers Quilt

Lutheran Church, 220 W. 13th.

call Cheryl at 890-3023.

or Dave at 890-2858.

Colby any Monday, Wednesday or Friday at (785) 462-3572.

cheerleaders will have a car wash from 10 a.m.-2 p.m. Saturday, May 22, in the Wal-Mart parking lot.

SHARE sign up for the June distribution of food will be until Monday, June 14, at the Sherman County Health Department, Harvest America, the Regional Prevention Center or the Kanorado Senior Center. Pick up will be Saturday, May 22, for the May distribution.

Goodland Community Blood Drive will be from noon-6 p.m. Tuesday, May 25, at the United Methodist Church, 12th and Sherman.

school activities

Wednesday: Gold day. Semi-Jodi Tubbs of the Kansas Com- nar — Speaker for all students in American History. Last day of school for seniors. Jessica Kannady dance group 4-8 p.m. in the auditorium.

Thursday: Black day. Semi-Dedication ceremonies of the field American Legion. Call 800-life-size bronze sculpture by Charlie Norton, will be at 11 a.m.

Central Time Saturday, May 22, an exhibition and sale of bronze and paintings by Charlie and Pat Norton

Admission to the Prairie Mu-

Sundays at 1905 S. Franklin in Colby. The museum is also open from 9 a.m.-5 p.m. Central Time

Monday-Friday and 1-5 p.m. Satur-health department

partment at 1622 Broadway is open from 8 a.m.- noon and 1-5 p.m.

Wednesday: WIC in Colby.

Scheduled appointments. Thursday: WIC in Colby. Scheduled appointments. Friday: Scheduled tax title, Hurd having subsequently purchased the right of the original a quit claim deed, and according to Taylor's contention, a word-of-nied, and having no written agreement, Taylor was defeated in the Since then these neighbors have looked askance at each other, and Tuesday trouble breaks out in a new spot. The Taylor version is about as follows: "My boy was herding my cattle on my own land, but near the line between Hurd's land and mine.

Hurd came on the scene, cursed my tempted to run my cattle across the line with a view of taking them up.

what was the matter.

Taylor settled with Hurd, giving owners of the land.

The Sherman County Health De-

May 17-June 30.

Monday-Friday.

appointments.

The Northwest Kansas Area blood sugar, cholesterol and hemo-

Church planned 40-hour devotional service

Bandy affray, and now comes a acrop of wheat, previously sown by complaint from the northwest, the Taylor on land held by him under Hurd, swore out the complaint, mouth agreement that he should charging Taylor with assault with have one-half of the crop. Hurd de-

Sheriff Bradley went out to the district court at a cost of $50.

432-7422.

Alcoholics Anonymous meets at Birthplace of the Legend "Buffalo the same room. Al-Anon also at the U.S. Highway 83 bypass and meets at 8 p.m. on Monday in a Second St. in Oakley. The Fick Fos-different room. For Alcoholics sil History Museum will be hosting Myofascial Pain Support Group seum of Art and History will be meets from 6:30-8:30 p.m. the free from 1-5 p.m. Central Time dependents with claims. Due to nar—FCCLA. G-Club banquet 6 budget cuts, she will only come to p.m. at Sugar Hills Golf Club. X-Goodland on the third Thursday Presso guest night in the auditoof each month. Call the office in rium. DECA employer/employee banquet 6:30 p.m. at the Elks Lodge. Music boosters re-The Goodland High School ception for the X-Pressos in the cafeteria.

Friday: Gold day. NWKL golf 2 p.m. at Colby, depart 12:30 p.m. NWKL track 2 p.m. at Oakley, dismiss 11 a.m., depart 11:30. Tennis 2 p.m. at Colby, depart 12:45 p.m.

Saturday: Baccalaureate noon in the auditorium. Graduation 2 p.m. in the Max Jones Fieldhouse.

school menu

Wednesday: Taco, lettuce, tomato, cheese, tri-tator, cake and milk. Thursday: Grilled cheese sandwich, french fries, pickle, 1/ 2 apple and milk. Friday: Cooks' choice.

seniorcentermenu

Wednesday: Escalloped ham and potatoes, asparagus, dinner roll and apricots. Thursday: Liver and onions, creamed peas, tater tots, bread and cherry cobbler. Friday: Baked spaghetti, carrot/raisin salad, orange juice, garlic bread and pudding cup.

If you have questions, concerns or complaints about child care, call the health department.

Water Testing — The Northwest 8 p.m. Monday-Thursday and Bill" Cody, a more than two-times hospital volunteers

a.m. Thursday: Jessie Owens, a.m. Friday: Fern Hawks, a.m., and Ruth Morton, courtesy.

farm services

Farmers in Sherman, Cheyenne and Wallace counties who suffered crop or livestock losses because of natural disasters can apply for U.S. Farm Service Agency emergency loans. The farm service office at 210 W. 10th in Goodland is open from 8 a.m.-4:30 p.m. Monday-Friday. Call 899-3070. Applications for loans will be accepted until Thursday, Sept. 23.

alateen

A former Alateen member and an Al-Anon member have formed an Infants', children's and adult's Alateen support group that will immunizations, physicals, fasting meet from 6-7 p.m. on Mondays at 1275 W. Sixth in Colby. The group is for relatives and friends of alcoholics and is open to anyone 19 years old or under. Call 785-462-

Local Environmental Protection Group does free well evaluations, including testing for bacteria and nitrates. To schedule an evaluation or discuss environmental concerns, call the Health Department at 899-

Wednesday: Helen Armstrong,

8152 or 462-6101.

"He answered: 'You get off that horse, you g-d-s-b- and I will show you what's the matter.' I dismounted. Hurd assaulted me and struck him three times with my fist.

When he holloed 'enough' I let him up. During the scuffle, Hurd's boy came at me with a heavy club. After he struck me across the back, I called on my boy to keep him off."

him, had one at the house which he had sometimes used to shoot at a mark. He insists that Hurd was the aggressor and acted without provo-

Fred Hurd is said by his wife to have been severely pummeled with a revolver in the hand of Taylor, but as Hurd could not be seen, his story of the trouble could not be obtained.

Goodland News, provided by the Sherman County Historical Society. Since the paper was published weekly, some items were arbitrarily assigned a date.

From weekly issues of The cation.

Taylor denies having a pistol with

We clinched. I downed him and both struck and kicked me.

Teen named outstanding youth A Topeka teen, Brandy Mann, Shawnee County Public Library. During the holiday season, Mann granddaughter of Jo Mann of Goodland and the late Harden Mann, was honored this spring as an outstanding youth. Brandy, daughter of Sam and Nancy Mann, was one of six northeast Kansas volunteers who won 2004 Jefferson Awards. The American Institute for Public Services has presented the awards on the local and national level since dents and is a pen pal to a student at

An article in the Topeka Capitol-Journal said Mann, 18, doesn't vi- active in school activities, Mann is sualize any time in her life when she a waitress and hostess at Perkins won't be busy; she has too many passions.

Mann has so far put in more than 450 hours of community service while working a part-time job and being a student leader at Topeka West High School. She helps youths, the elderly, the poor and her She serves as the all-school president, German Club treasurer, Topeka Youth Council representative. Youth Court judge, member of the Youth Court Advisory Council, National Honor Society secretary, Governor's Education Roundtable, District Citizens' Advisory Council and is a Peer Helper representative.

She is a volunteer at Booktique, a used-book store at the Topeka and spends time ringing bells for the Salvation Army's annual kettle drive and providing holiday activities for the residents at Lexington Park Assisted Living and coordinating their adopt-a-family pro-

She serves as a mentor to several youth organizations, tutors younger stu-

Lyman Elementary. Besides volunteering and being Restaurant, and she saved enough money during her sophomore year to buy a car. But being so busy isn't a burden;

Mann seems to thrive on her many "The more stuff you do, the happier you are," Mann told the Capitol-Journal.

Mann will graduate this month and plans to leave behind her volunteer projects in Topeka and her job to attend Kansas State University in the fall, majoring in secondary education. Mann thinks her calling is to teach chemistry or government at Topeka West, the article said, and to try her hand serving on the Topeka City Council after she graduates from college.

Goodland woman named young leader A Goodland native has been hon-local or national Society of Marketored by a Kansas City business pubing Professional Services events, lication as one of the town's up-and-coming young leaders.

Bowker

Golden Margaret Bowker, who is a principal of an architectural firm, though she is not an architect, was chosen by Ingram's, a monthly Kansas City business magazine, as one of its "40-Under-Forty" class of young and Marcia Golden and the daugh- Alumni Associations. ter-in-law of Jim and Sharon Bowker of Goodland. She graduated from Goodland High School in Kansas.

The magazine article said this was the sixth year for the 40-under-Forty class, and that this year they could accept one out of every 10 young people who were submitted for the list.

"How does a young woman become principal of a prestigious architectural firm without becoming an architect?" the writer asks. "It's not easy. In fact, it's practically unheard of, but Bowker did just that. She is a principal at one of the area's most prominent architectural firms, Gould Evans. She is one of a handful of non-architect marketing directors in the industry to be promoted to principal. She is 36.

work, she can be found attending

Kansas City Area Development Council functions or rubbing elbows with members of the various Chamber of Commerce chapters in the metro area.

She is in her 11th year with the Junior League, is involved with Junior Achievement, routinely volunteers at her children's schools and is a member Bowker is the daughter of John of the Pi Beta Phi and Kansas

"She has a bachelor's degree in journalism from the University of

'She and husband Jeff have two children, Reed and Claire.

In an editorial about the class, Ingram's said: "Those who question whether Kansas City is hip enough to recruit and retain qualified younger professionals need only join us in our annual review. What they see will, we are sure, surprise them. If they can find a better class of young recruits anywhere, we'll move there ourselves.

"One recognizes an obvious pattern in those selected — their ambition, their shared work ethic, their commitment to family and their dedication to community. This class of 40-under-Forty is exactly the kind upon which a city can build a

"When she finds time away from future."

matters of record

Goodland Police

The following crimes have been ered. reported to the Goodland Police Department:

May 4 — Raqual Perez was arrested at 919 E. Hwy. 24 on a warrant from municipal court for failure to comply.

May 5 — The theft of beer, valued at $15, taken from Total Petroreported. The beer was later recov-Aaron E. Geigle was arrested at 921 Main Ave. for possession of marijuana and possession of drug paraphernalia. He was charged in district court.

Oralia Arriaga reported a burglary at 2810 Commerce Rd., and Maria Garza reported the theft of a CD player, valued at $238.37, taken leum, 2710 Commerce Rd., was from a vehicle at the same location.

Free Skin Cancer Screening Wednesday, May 12

Bad blood has existed between boy, called him vile names, and at-

when Fred Hurd brought action I rode down there and asked Hurd

By Dr. Charles Ruggles, Dermatologist Screening done at Goodland Regional Medical Center

220 W. 2nd, Goodland, Kan. Please call 890-6030 to schedule an appointment.

Celebrating Hometown Life See American Profile magazine in this week's issue of

Goodland Star-News

(available in local area only) Brought to you by The Star-News and "Neighbors helping neighbors"

202 E. 11th St. Goodland, Kan. 785-890-5610