Blast from Past rocks fifth grade music program

North Elementary's Fifth grade presented "Blast From the Past" Tuesday evening at the high school auditorium, with choir selections followed by the band.

The choir, directed by Char Avila, opened with "Everybody Have Fun Tonight," with word searchers LeRoy Prine, Christopher Millam and Joseph Eddleman. Hula Hoopers were Dayelle Waugh, Erika Fyfe, Jade Herl, Maria Rodriguez-Moreno, Ashley Martell, Halley Varga and Andrea Roeder.

"Surfin U.S.A." was a medley with speakers David Murray, Nathan Deeds and Bryan Guyer. Dancers were Robert Cowan, Dalton Lange, Hazen Deeds, Lee Entwistle, Josh Dorn and Seth Miller.

The "beach boys" were Andrew Shores, Stephen Buller, Steve Zupko, Dylan McBride, Brendan Flodin, Nicholas Thomas, Jacob Terry, Eric Linnell, Blaine Sapp, Ryan Fisher and Cory Millam.

"Purple People Eater" was sung by Hazen Deeds. A disco fever medley with "Boogie Fever," "Funkytown" and "I Will Survive" starred Dane Frazier and Ashley Archer.

"The Beat Goes On" featured Jeremy Mills as a rapper.

"Beat It" was done by Chris Bustillos, Mills, Jason Weber, Kody Eli and Jimmy Roeder. "Material Girl" was performed by Layne Perdew, Nichole Rutherford, Katlyn Topliff, Samantha Goaldeen, Jennifer Hernandez, Caitlyn McGinley, Mila Bell, Fyfe and Martell.

A "Birth of Rock" medley featured "Rock Around the Clock" with speakers Shores and Entwistle. "Lollipop" was performed by Amanda Bodfield, Hernandez, Rodriguez-Moreno, McGinley and Rutherford.

"Tutti Frutti" featured dancers Rodriguez-Moreno, Bell, Kendra Promise, Chelsey Hachmeister, Waugh, Roeder, Kirstin Topliff and Cappi Thomas.

The medley "Rockin' the 80s" had Cowan as the speaker and featured the songs "Eye of the Tiger," "Flashdance," "Wake Me Up Before You Go-Go," "We Built This City" and "Danger Zone."

The finale was "Footloose" with the dancing of Sawyer Burkett, Kayler Rietcheck, Dillon Trachsel, Brock Wilkens, Tyler Jones, Michael Pettibone, Frazier, Kirsten Topliff, Christy Studer, Bodfield, Archer, Herl, Williams and Kaitlyn Lammers.

The saxophone section of the fifth grade band (left) included Nichole Rutherford, Sheldon Lee, and Dillon Sjoerdsma. Steven Zupko played the clarinet. Trombones (right) were Bryan Guyer, Robert Cowan and Chase Sawastzky.

The band program followed under the direction of Deandra Schields and Tremon Kizer.

The band played "Sawmill Creek," "Kookaburra," "All Through the Night," "Alouette," "Home on the Range," "The Conquering Hero" and Mozart's "Variations on a Theme."

The choir and band members are from the fifth grade classes taught by De Burkett, Jona Neufeld and Myron Tedford.

Others in the band were Bigvai Carrillo,

Victor Diaz, Tanar Fairchild, Thomas McCurry, Cristina Olave, Chase Sawatzky, Devon Garrett, Bobbi Ray, Billy DeHoyos, Dillon Sjoerdsma, Bryan Smith and Sheldon Lee.

Denver is a "SummerFest" — a summer long celebration of fun. Watch the Rockies at Coors Field, then dine in LoDo, Denver's downtown historic district filled with 90 sports bars and brew pubs.

Listen to a concert under the stars at Red Rocks, scream down the inverted coasters at Six Flags Elitch Gardens or trek on an African safari at the Denver Zoo's new Predator Ridge.

With incredible shopping, fun festivals and events, outstanding museums and more than 2,000 restaurants, there's always something new and exciting to discover in Denver.
