

Dust, fumes, noise make races exciting

Dust, fumes, noise, crowds and the occasional crash might be irritants to some people but they help make stock car racing exciting to the fans of Sherman County.

The Sherman County Stock Car Association held its second event of the season Saturday at the county speedway, and for the second time, Ron Hill of Sharon Springs won the stock race. Hill also won the stock cash dash.

Justin Blakley of Lamar, Colo., was second in the stock race, while Mike Meyers of Sharon Springs finished fourth.

Darren DeLoach of Lamar won both the modified race and cash dash. Jeff Hartwell of Colby was second. Lane Linthacum of Goodland finished 10th.

Jordan Blackwell of Quinter won the bomber race and his brother Jeremy the cash dash. Keith Stegman of Lamar was second. Brothers Justin and Josh Colby of Kanorado finished 10th and 11th respectively. Joey Snethen was 12th and Junior Wolfrum was 14th; both are from Goodland.

The next event will be June 5 starting at 6:30 p.m. at the speedway, located at the county fairgrounds in Goodland.
