

Accident shatters feeling of safety

I just heard that we had another fatal accident close by on I-70, and it makes one very sad to know that more lives have been lost in an area that once seemed to be one of the safest in the state.

Our hearts go out to those who have lost loved ones and those who suffered injuries in these tragedies.

Paul Hudson is now in Lantern Park, and we wish him the very best. Dale says he would appreciate visitors, and I'll bet a card would lift his spirits also. Paul is a very nice man with a great sense of humor.

George and Roberta Luckert went to Salina for the state square dance event last Saturday, and this weekend, they are in Lamar, Colo., for the annual Luckert Reunion, so they are keeping busy.

Don and Becky and family have also traveled for the family gathering, so Lamar will be a little bigger this weekend thanks to the Luckert families.

It seems like there were several folks around town last week during the garage sale, and most seemed pleased with the results. I was going to make the rounds, but a couple of my kids were here to help us with some household chores, and I didn't want to miss a minute of these helping hands.

Barry and his daughter Beka were really got quite a bit done, but alas, we do have a lot more to do. It is amazing how little of your time is about the most valuable gift there is.

Maybe this will give some of you an idea for your dad for Father's Day. Once in a while, it has worked the other way too. We older ones can give a hand in some of the little remodeling and other projects that our kids need help with.

Barry pleased his dad a while back by saying that being able to call and get some helpful advice is one of the best things he could ask for.

Marion and Coleen Crumrine traveled to Wakita, Okla., on Sunday, May 30, to help celebrate the 50th anniversary of Coleen's friends, Dorothy and Bill Rapp. The Rapps were on hand last year for the Crumrines' celebration, so now there's more than 100 years of marriage between these two couples. I wonder if they ever looked at it that way. Later in the day, Marion and Coleen went to Ponca City, Okla., to check on Coleen's brother Eugene and his wife Lila Pfalser. She said they seem to be doing a little better when the Crumrines returned home on Tuesday, June 1.

Warren and Bonnie Reid were present when their grandson, Eric Jones, and Angela Rickard were married at the All Faith Chapel on the Kansas State University campus on June 5.

Eric is the son of Laurie (Reid) and John Jones of Kismet, and both he and Angela attended Southwestern Heights High School. Both are now students at Kansas State.

Following the wedding, Warren and Bonnie went to Overland Park, where they spent a few days visiting J. and Doty Reid and Josh and Brit Reid and Preston.

Stay safe, and Happy Father's Day.

Couple schedules June wedding

Kendra Kay Franklin and Trevor Stocton Shaw plan to marry June 26, 2004, in Burlington.

He graduated from Campo, Colo., High School in 2001, and she graduated from Harcourt Correspondence School in 2001. Both graduated from the Northwest Kansas Technical College in May, he in engineering, she in business.

The bride-elect is the daughter of Lee and Eloisa Franklin of Goodland and the granddaughter of Annette Franklin of Manhattan and Kenneth Franklin of Goodland.

The prospective groom is the son of Norm and Lois Shaw of Campo and the grandson of Kenneth and Wilma Shaw and

Franklin and Shaw

Frances and Mildred Holcomb, all of Colorado.

The couple will live in Granby, Colo., where he works for G. and H. Engineering.
