

Gimme some more Targets

Lady Outlaws win two in Colby

The Lady Outlaws softball team had their best tournament of the season this weekend, going 2-2 at the Colby Girls Fastpitch Association Invitational.

Coach Grady Bonsall said the girls played well and did a great job at the plate, suffering only six strike outs in four games.

In Goodland’s opening game Saturday, the Outlaws faced an inspired Hays team that jumped out to a 9-0 lead in the first inning. The Strikers added two runs in the second and one in the third while keeping Goodland scoreless to win 12-0. The game was called due to a 1 hour, 15 minute time limit.

In their second game, the Outlaws fell behind early to Larned 4-2 after the first. However, after holding the Renegades scoreless in the top of the second, Goodland put on a hitting performance sparked by a triple by Chelsie Gausman that led to six more runs by the Outlaws. They took an 8-4 lead.

The results of the third inning were the same as the second. After holding Larned to a “three-and-out” series Goodland’s Holly Kibel hit a double which started another offensive streak. That added six more runs, making the score 14-4. Both teams scored a run in the fourth, and when the game was called due to the time limit, Goodland had its first win of the day, 15-5.

The Outlaws faced Burlington in their third game Saturday. Burlington jumped out to a 4-0 lead after the first, and neither team scored in the second.

Burlington increased its lead to 6-0 in the top of the third inning, but Goodland responded with 10 runs in the bottom of the inning — highlighted by a double by Andrea Wolak. Eight Outlaws scored in the inning, with Kibel and Sammie Raymer both scoring twice.

Burlington scored three more runs in the top of the fourth to close with one, but the game was called for time and Goodland came away with a 10-9 win.

In Sunday’s game, Hill City scored two runs in the top of the first but the Outlaws responded with three runs in the bottom of the inning. After holding Hill City to a “three-and-out” series in the top of the second, Goodland added two more runs to make the score 5-2.

Hill City retook the lead in the top of the third 7-5, then the Outlaws scored two runs in the bottom of the inning to tie the game at 7. Both teams scored a run in the fourth inning. Hill City scored eight in the top of the fifth inning, and Goodland could only come up with five to make the final score 16-13 for Hill City.

The Lady Outlaws, now 8-15 for the season, will play Oakley at 6 p.m. Wednesday at Centennial Park. The team travels to Oakley on Friday for a doubleheader starting at 7 p.m. (Central Time).
