American Legion team in action

County attorney fits into prosecution role

"I hope there's enough information from the cases we see of illegal substances," Selby said, "that teenagers can see that that can end all their dreams for the future.

"If we have to have those cases, we hope young people can use it, help them to see it's not a good thing to do.'

Selby said one thing her office does to help young people is provide scholarships through the Prosecutor's Charitable Trust. Most of the money comes from speeding tickets, she said.

People ask to have their tickets converted to a non-moving violation, Selby said, to keep it from going on their record. She said they check the driver's history and make sure they don't have a lot of violations. Then, if they weren't going faster than 96 mph, they will change the ticket to a non-moving violation if the driver pas court costs and contributes to the trust.

There's a chart of what size of contributions to give, she said, based on the speed limit compared to the speed they were going. Last year, she said, the trust paid out out them." $6,050 in scholarships.

"That's been fun," Selby said.

said she looks forward to coming up with more efficient ways to handle challenging cases and better ways to update statutes.

"It's a learning process for all of us," she said. As far as long-term goals, she information to the police and prosecutors, she said, and it may be the first time they've seen how the law works, what its limitations are.

Nobody can ever legislate anything (as punishment) that compares with what they lost, she said; it's so personal.

"We try to do the best we can with that, and realize that part of the healing process is having a chance to vent.'

She also credits the success of her office to those she works with, Amy Thorson and Kelly Studer.

"It would have been most difficult without those two," Selby said. "I don't know what I would do with-got a call two miles east on County Road 77, where an out building was on fire

Rural Fire Chief Kenny Griffith took one fire truck and headed to the scene, driving through the rain and hail as he headed north.

As he turned east, he reported that water was running over the road at two low points. The chief told volunteer Justin Bentzinger to keep the tanker on K-27 at the corner with Road 77.

Sheriff Whitson followed Griffith to the fire and reported water 18 inches high coming across the road.

He said water was running over the road east of the shed and appeared to be about 30 inches deep. The storm moved southeast, but the winds were swirling to the west and driving the rain in sheets. At times the visibility on North Caldwell was less than 50 feet, causing drivers to slow to a crawl.

The winds in Goodland were clocked at 60 mph, and were reported to be near 70 north of the city.

Rainfall for Thursday was 1.47 inches, and the storm continued through the night and through Friday with an additional .41 of an inch. A light rain and mist continued through the night, stopping about noon Saturday with an additional.1 of an inch, for a total of 1.98 inches in two days.

Wednesday, the total moisture for July was 2.06 inches and by Saturday it was up to 4.04 inches. The average rain for those days is .11 inches and the normal for the month Griffith said there was no fire, but is 2.78 inches. Last year, when it that the steam coming off the hail was so dry, there had been .53 The three days of rain brought the year to day to 12.89 inches, which is .23 below the normal of 13.12 inches, and 1.32 inches ahead of last year's 11.57 inches. The forecast for the week is for possible thunderstorms for today through Th temperatur
