

Council celebrates week of recognition

The Western Prairie Resource Conservation and Development Council joins the 375 others across the country in celebrating "RC&D Week" this week.

The week was declared in recognition of the 40th anniversary of the first 10 resource conservation and development areas. In the past 40 years, the program has grown to 375 designated areas that cover over 80 percent of the United States and its territories.

The Western Prairie council serves Cheyenne, Rawlins, Decatur, Sherman, Thomas, Sheridan, Wallace and Logan counties.

The council has worked with many organizations, helped to organize the Republican River Riparian Project, and offered workshops in fund raising, grant writing, and rangeland management.

The agency helped find money for a Rural Fire Department for a truck, the Kanorado Senior Center van, Wallace County Museum expansion and a soybean processing plant. It helped provide money for subsurface drip irrigation demonstration sites, the Rexford PRIDE Program; a grant funding research center at the Pioneer Memorial Library in Colby, organization and planning of no-till field days, development of recycling programs in Rawlins and Thomas counties, as well as a regional recycling center, Boy Scout Troop No. 151, Wallace County Rotary Daycare, the Pheasants Initiative, the Northwest Kansas Animal Shelter, playground equipment for the Rexford Park; and development of Sappa Lake Park.

The resource councils are made up of volunteers who serve their communities in all 50 states and U.S. territories. The councils identify, address and solve the challenges needed to sustain and improve the quality of life in their own communities. The program is sponsored by the U.S. Department of Agriculture. Bible says man must be born again

The Bible says (John 3:3), "Jesus answered and said unto him, Verily, verily, I say unto thee, Except a man be born again, he cannot see the kingdom of God." meaning, that we must have another birth, be born again.

● Bible Baptist minister

Nicodemus said, (John 3:4) "Nicodemus I saith unto him, How can a man be born when he is old? Can he enter the second time into his mother's womb, and be born?" So then a person must have two births.

The Bible then explains what types of birth one must have to go to Heaven, "I am not talking about the unborn that die, but to those who are born."

The first is that of a water birth; the Bible says, (John 3:5), "Jesus answered, Verily, verily I say unto thee, Except a man be born of water and of the Spirit, he cannot enter into the kingdom of God." Then it explains that one must be born of water.

Note the next verse says, (John 3:6) "That which is born of the flesh is flesh; and that which is born of the Spirit is spirit." This is not baptism, but a fleshly birth.

Then you must have a birth of the Spirit. This Spirit is capitalized and speaking of the Holy Spirit. Verse 6 says again (John 3:6), "That which is born of the flesh is flesh; and that which is born of the Spirit is spirit." That means that you must have a birth where you receive the Holy Spirit of God. This again is not talking of speaking in tongues.

Do as the Bible says, (Acts 2:21), "And it shall come to pass, that whosoever shall call on the name of the Lord shall be saved," and as (Romans 10:13), "For whosoever shall call upon the name of the Lord shall be saved."

According to the Bible, we need to have two births. The first is a fleshly birth and the second is a Spiritual birth.

If you are reading this, then you have had the fleshly birth. When have you had your second birth? I am not talking of trusting the Lord on a daily bases, but for you to be able to go to Heaven? When? If not, then you need to have that birth, according to the Bible.

Just, as you only have ONE fleshly birth, you only have ONE Spiritual birth as well. Do you have many fleshly births? No, occurs not. You only have one. The same with a Spiritual birth, you one need to have one, according to the Bible!

Then the Lord says, (John 3:7) "Marvel not that I said unto thee, Ye must be born again." A key word is again, your second birth or Spiritual birth.

If a person is born once, he will die twice, (Revelations 21:8), "But the fearful, and unbelieving, and the abominable, and murderers, and whoremongers, and sorcerers, and idolaters, and all liars, shall have their part in the lake which burneth with fire and brimstone, which is the second death."

If a person is born again (twice), he will only die once.
