

Family has many visitors, looks forward to more

Ruth and Duane Jones have been having a lot of company lately and enjoying all of it.

Their daughter Monna Rose Blank came up from her home in Elgin, Texas, with her son Aaron Blank and family. Great-granddaughters April and Allie enjoyed their visit with them for about a week.

While the Blanks were visiting, Ruth and Duane also enjoyed Brad and Melissa Hoffner from Greeley, Colo., with their children. Later, the Jones' other daughter Linda Hoffner arrived for a visit, and they all enjoyed time with their families.

Also included in the festivities was Ruth's sister Marie Edwards and brother George McClelland, plus many other relatives.

The week went fast, but there will be more visiting done when Caleb Blank and his wife come for their visit from Arlington, Texas. So there will be more family enjoyment on hand.

One thing, though, they need to get Ruth's sister Marie feeling better. She has spent the last several days in the hospital suffering from pneumonia. Hopefully she is doing better now.

Another person who has been hospitalized is Harold Norton, who spent several days in Colby's hospital, also with pneumonia. He is home now, and we wish him a continued fast recovery.

Many have been having some respiratory problems, due to the many weeds and pollen areas. The rains have helped everything grow, including those things that cause the most allergies.

It sure is nice to see the median strips and barrow pits nice and green, as well as the pastures and lawns. It's been a long time since Brewster had a rain that was over 2 inches, and I can let you know that none of it was wasted. It came down in several hours' time, and it was just what was needed to perk everything and everyone up.

I read where a good friend Sondra Barnett is going to do the Rexford news. I am sure she will do a great job, and I look forward to enjoying her column.

It seems the thoughts of most are on the new school year, which will be beginning in less than a month. Does that seem possible to you?!

Where has the summer gone? We had so many plans, and now it seems that the time for them has disappeared. The first Christmas catalog of the year was in the mailbox this morning.

On Friday, the 23rd, the Prairie Gem 4-H Club presented their Style Revue that they will be entering in the Thomas County Fair. There were five girls who modeled clothes they had made or purchased, and each of them did a great job.

They are also very fast on the changes, although I heard some of the mothers who were on hand saying they normally didn't get dressed quite that fast. In fact, they seem to be amazed that it was possible for them to move that quickly. Dorothy Bear was very professional as the emcee of the presentation.

We had another gusty thunderstorm on Thursday the 22nd. I don't know what the velocity of that gust of wind that started things off was, but I am sure it was at least 80 mile per hour.

This time it was from the east. We also have 2 1/2 inches of rain in our gauge this evening from the storms we have had for the last 24 hours. It sounds like we will be experiencing more rain over the weekend, but I don't hear anyone complaining yet.

Greg Michael of Claremore, Okla., has returned to Brewster to help care for his dad LaVelle Michael. He will be here for several days while LaVelle remains at home.

Lucille Smith has also returned to her home in Brewster after a short stay in Lantern Park Manor. She is feeling better after recovering from her fall a few weeks ago.

There are some new folks in town, and in one case, a familiar family has moved back. Former teacher and coach Larry O'Connor and family have returned to the Brewster area. Although they won't be teaching in the local school, I'm sure it won't be long before this feels like home to them again.

We hope all the new families feel welcomed by Brewster and want to make it their home too.

That's it for this week. See you next time.

4-H news

The Sunflower 4-H Club tour was held Friday, July 23. Due to the rainy weather, the club was only able to go see Austin Rains' and Saige Vandiver's animals.

After looking at the animals, the club went to the 4-H building for a quick meeting.

It was called to order by Vice President Jason Krayca. He led the group in the Pledge of Allegiance and the 4-H pledge.

Roll call of "How many pets do you have?" was answered by 14 members, six parents, two leaders and no guests.

The committees for the float, flag ceremony, appreciation barbecue and fund raiser reported to the group. Leaders Cris and Jeanie reminded the club of important fair dates.

During the program, everyone talked about the projects they were doing in 4-H. The meeting was adjourned.

The members and their families enjoyed a cookout meal. The next meeting will be Monday, Aug. 16. Reported by Nicole Hendrich
