

Shrine Bowl kicks off Saturday

When Shrine Bowl XXXI kicks off at 6 p.m. (Mountain Time) Saturday, Goodland's Jordan Bedore will be on the field and four of the town's finest musicians will be in the band.

The game will be played at Welch Stadium on the campus of Emporia State University. Goodland radio KKCI (102.5 FM) will broadcast the game beginning at 5:45 p.m. Smoky Hills Public Television also will broadcast the game starting at 5:30, on cable channel 2 for both S&T and Eagle subscribers.

Four young people from Goodland will among the 220 members of this year's Kansas Masonic All-State Marching Band, which will perform in the Shrine Parade Saturday morning and at halftime for the game: Lea Shores, Craig Mason, Jeff Moore and D.J. Sparks.

Ken Baum, secretary for the Mason Lodge in Goodland, said this is the most Goodland has sent at one time.

The band members are attending a music camp this week in Emporia, while the West Team held practice at St. John's Military School in Salina. The East Team held its practice at Emporia State.

The vast majority of the players on both teams will be playing college ball somewhere this fall, including the West Team's Bedore, who is headed to Kansas State University this fall. The last Cowboy to play in the Shrine Bowl was Jeff Darnauer in 1999, who went on to play for Wheaton College in Illinois.

Atwood's Jeff Horinek also is playing for the West Team. He heads to Colorado State University next month where his older brother Deone played. Deone was in the 1996 Kansas Shrine Bowl.

The game serves as a fund raiser for the Shriners Hospital for Children in St. Louis. It features two teams of all-star high school players from across Kansas, one representing the east and the other the west.

The dividing line this year follows county borders starting with Marshall and Washington counties in the north, heading south and slightly east, and ending with Chautauqua and Montgomery counties in the south.

Last year the, West defeated the East 35-2 in Wichita. The last time the game was played in Emporia was 1998, when the East won 22-11. Next year's game will be in Pittsburg.

Jordan Bedore met with one of the patients at the Shriner's Hospital for Children last Saturday in St. Louis. Players from both teams were flown there for a tour of the city and visit the hospital.

Future Cowgirls sharpen skills

Cowgirl coach Jerry McKee (right in right photo) used some humor to make a point to Cassie Sandoval on Wednesday evening while demonstrating proper passing technique. Girls attending a volleyball camp for fifth through eighth-graders took part in conditioning drills early during Tuesday's session.
