

Showing the crowd how its done!

Team Extreme members (above) worked together Wednesday night to rope and wrestle a cow in to extract milk in the Wild Cow Milking competition at the Northwest Kansas District Free Fair 4th Annual Ranch Rodeo. The team, made up of Greg Sederstrom, Charlie Herl and Doug Sederstrom of Goodland and Bryan Lankford and David Hall of Hutchinson, advanced ahead to compete in the cow branding, doctoring and mugging events. One of the rodeo teams (above right) took its turn roping and branding a cow in the Calf Branding contest at the Northwest Kansas District Free Fair 4th Annual Ranch Rodeo. Each team got a shot at sending one of their members into a small pen to rope a calf and drag him out of the pen for the rest of the team to rope and brand. Nine teams in all competed in the rodeo that held four different events. Kaitlin Laue (right) was one of the many competitors in the Goat Tail Untie contest during Tuesday's Howdy Rowdy Rodeo.
