

Norton wins golf tourney

For the third year in a row, the Norton Country Club team won the KLOE-KKCI-KWGB Classic golf tournament Sunday at the Sugar Hills Golf Club.

The tournament, in its 15th year, featured 11 teams of 11 players each. The team scores are determined by adding the scores of each player on the team except the top individual finisher.

Tournament director Kay Melia said there usually are 12 teams, but a last minute committment kept the Hoxie team away. He said they should be back next year.

Norton's Joe Herman and Brad Leiker both shot an even par 71 and Joel Duscher shot a 72 to led their team. Herman and Leiker were the tournament's runners-up. Norton's score was 771.

Colby Country Club took second with a score of 777. Kevan Taylor of Colby was tournament's champion, shooting a two-under-par 69.

Jim Stanley shot a 74.

Atwood Country Club placed third, just one stroke behind Colby. Kevin Finley and Joe Kanak both shot 74 for Atwood, and Jim Kanak and Grant Glad both had 75.

Sugar Hills finished fourth with 788, led by Tyson Shelly with a one-over-par 72. Chuck Osborn and Travis Jones both finished the course with 74. Warren Sweat shot a 75.

Other players for Goodland were Devlin Mull, who shot a 78; J.D. Hooper, 80; Jon McLean, 81; Jerry Fairbanks, 82; Steve Raymer, 84; Randy Topliff, 88; and Tom Rohr, who shot a 90.

Burlington Country Club was fifth with 817, led by Mike Grinnan who shot a 73 and Joedy Hartman with a 75. St. Francis was sixth with 841, Sharon Springs seventh with 858, Oberlin eighth with 872, Tribune ninth with 876, Oakley 10th with 887 and Benkelman 11th with 888.

Goodland athlete among nation's best

Goodland's Michelle Smith finished 20th Thursday in the girls discus for her age group at the 2004 Amateur Athletic Union Junior Olympic Games in Des Moines, Iowa.

Smith's best throw of the day was 84 feet, 3 inches. She was one of four girls from Kansas among the 39 competing in the youth category, ages 13-14.

Kaitlyn Wagle of Great Bend won the event with a throw of 119 feet, 2 inches. Whitney Taylor of Hays was third at 108 feet 1 inch and Katelyn Penner of Edna, about 18 miles east of Coffeyville, finished 11th with 94 feet 10 inches.

The games, in their 38th year, began July 27 and closing ceremonies were Saturday. Track and field events were held at the Drake University stadium, home of the Drake Relays, which will celebrate its 96th year in 2005.

This was Smith's fifth trip to the Junior Olympic games, her mother Sondra said; her best finish was fifth in 2002 in the sub-midget category. Last year she was seventh in the midget bracket.

Smith, who will be an eighth grader at Grant Junior High this school year, set school records in the discus and shot put as a seventh grader last season.

Baseball camp at Kansas State

Brad Hill, head coach of the Kansas State University baseball team, is conducting the All-Star Showcase Camp for players age 15 and up Wednesday in Manhattan.

The camp will be held at Tointon Stadium on the campus of Kansas State. The cost is $100 per player.

In their first season under Hill, the Wildcats finished 26-30 overall and 4-23 in the Big 12 Conference. Hill coached at Central Missouri State University for nine seasons prior to moving to Kansas State.
