Speaker gave impetus to temperance work

By Evelyn Ward

Sherman County Historical Society
August 27, 1904: Temperance work in Goodland received new inspiration and new impetus from the lectures of Miss Olive P. Blunt.

Miss Blunt is one of the state lecturers of the Kansas Women's Christian Temperance Union (W.C.T.U.) and did splendid work for the organization during her three days here. Then she gave three days each to Edson and Kanorado.

She organized a Loyal Temperance Legion of 67 members among the children. They made a public demonstration.

With Miss Blunt and three other ladies in a carriage to direct them, they marched up the Boulevard for three blocks, stopping two or three times to give the state yell: "Rah! Rah! Rah! Who are we? An L.T.L. don't you see. A sturdy Kansas L.T.L. Don't you love to hear us yell? Saloons must go, saloons must go. For we boys and girls say so."

Mrs. Wolcott will supervise the work of the children, but they have also their own officers — Miss Alice Watters president, Miss Edna Jewell recording secretary and Master Carl Shimeall treasurer. Miss Blunt also organized the young ladies and gentlemen into a "T" with Miss May Marshall president. Seven new members were added to the W.C.T.U.

August 28, 1904: I would kindly ask the societies of Goodland, when they want my daughter Florence to take part in any play or demonstration for the benefit of any society, that they notify her parents as to what part she is to take, as I do not want her parading the streets and making speeches before public buildings, which her parents would not do themselves. Jas. Bainbridge August 29, 1904: H.H. Auer has a newspaper over 104 years old. It is the Ulster County Gazette of the date of Jan. 4, 1800.

The paper contains an account of the funeral of Gen. George Washington and is heavily lined in black column rules. Another interesting feature is an article of the proceedings in the U. S. Senate containing a letter signed by President Adams.

Another curious thing is an advertisement of a sawmill for sale near Rochester, N.Y., stating that adjacent to the mill is a fine quality of pine timber.

Connected with this quaint advertisement is another interesting thing, after mentioning the sawmill and the pine timber, it adds: "And also a stout, healthy, active Negro wench."

August 30, 1904: Kansas Gains In Population — Increased Last Year 38,218 People — Sherman County Gained 280 — The population of the entire state, as returned to the state board of agriculture by the county clerks by the township assessors is 1,533,049, which is the largest population in the state's history.

Kansas has now passed the one and a half million mark. This is an increase for the entire state during the year of 38,218.

The gain in Sherman county during the past year has been 280. Of the 105 counties in the state, only 33 have registered a growth greater than that of this county. Twenty eight counties registered a loss ranging from 1 to 996.

From weekly issues of The Goodland News, provided by the Sherman County Historical Society. Since the paper was published weekly, some items were arbitrarily assigned a date.
