Girls tennis team got early start

The Cowgirls tennis team started Goodland High's fall athletic season even before classes started by finishing third out of six teams at the Cimarron round-robin tournament on Aug. 26.

The team also had the school's first athletic action after classes began by competing at the quad-angular meet in Phillipsburg on Tuesday.

At Cimarron, the No. 2 doubles team of Kali Rietcheck and Megan Stefan, both juniors, had the best record for the Cowgirls, going 4-1 in the tournament. Sophomores Jena McCall and Sandy Johnson, playing No. 1 doubles, went 3-2.

Senior Grace Langness went 3-2 at No. 2 singles. Sophomore Jillian Parker had the toughest time for the Cowgirls, going 1-4.

At Phillipsburg the team did not play as well as they did in Cimarron, said Coach Wallace Hansen, winning just three of 12 matches. Because McCall could not go with the team to Phillipsburg adjustments were made which caused the team to be less competitive.

The team started practice on Aug. 16 with seven players however, since classes started two more players were added to the roster: sophomore Lauren Hill and freshman Mindy Keith.

The Cowgirls are in action Saturday in Colby starting at 9 a.m. (Central Time). The team's first home meet will be Tuesday, Sept. 14.
