"A Loving Tribute to Granddaughter, Jessica"

Jessica is in Country Clovers 4-H Club. She works really hard and learns so much with her projects. She exhibited several art projects and craft projects - got all blue ribbons at the county fair.

She also exhibited her pigs and did showmanship - got red ribbons at the county fair.

She loves wildlife - did a great display using mountain lion tracks. She received Grand Champion at the county fair. She also loves her Entomology project and does a great job. She received Grand Champion at the county fair.

She had a conference with the wildlife judge at the State Fair - so she could learn more about her wildlife project. She received a blue ribbon. She also received a blue ribbon on her Entomology display at the State Fair. We were able to attend the State Fair. Really a great experience. I'm so proud of my granddaughter, Jessica, she is a wonderful young lady!

Love always,
Grandma
