

Homecoming 04

Goodland High marks celebration with big win

The Goodland High School Homecoming Court, announced at halftime of the Oberlin-Goodland football game on Friday, included (from left) David Livengood and Kara Angelos, second attendants; Richard Bauman, homecoming king, and Megan Sheldon, queen; and Wade Taylor and Aubrey Winter, first attendants. The nominees rode in convertibles in the homecoming parade Thursday.

Photo by Liz West/The Goodland Star-News

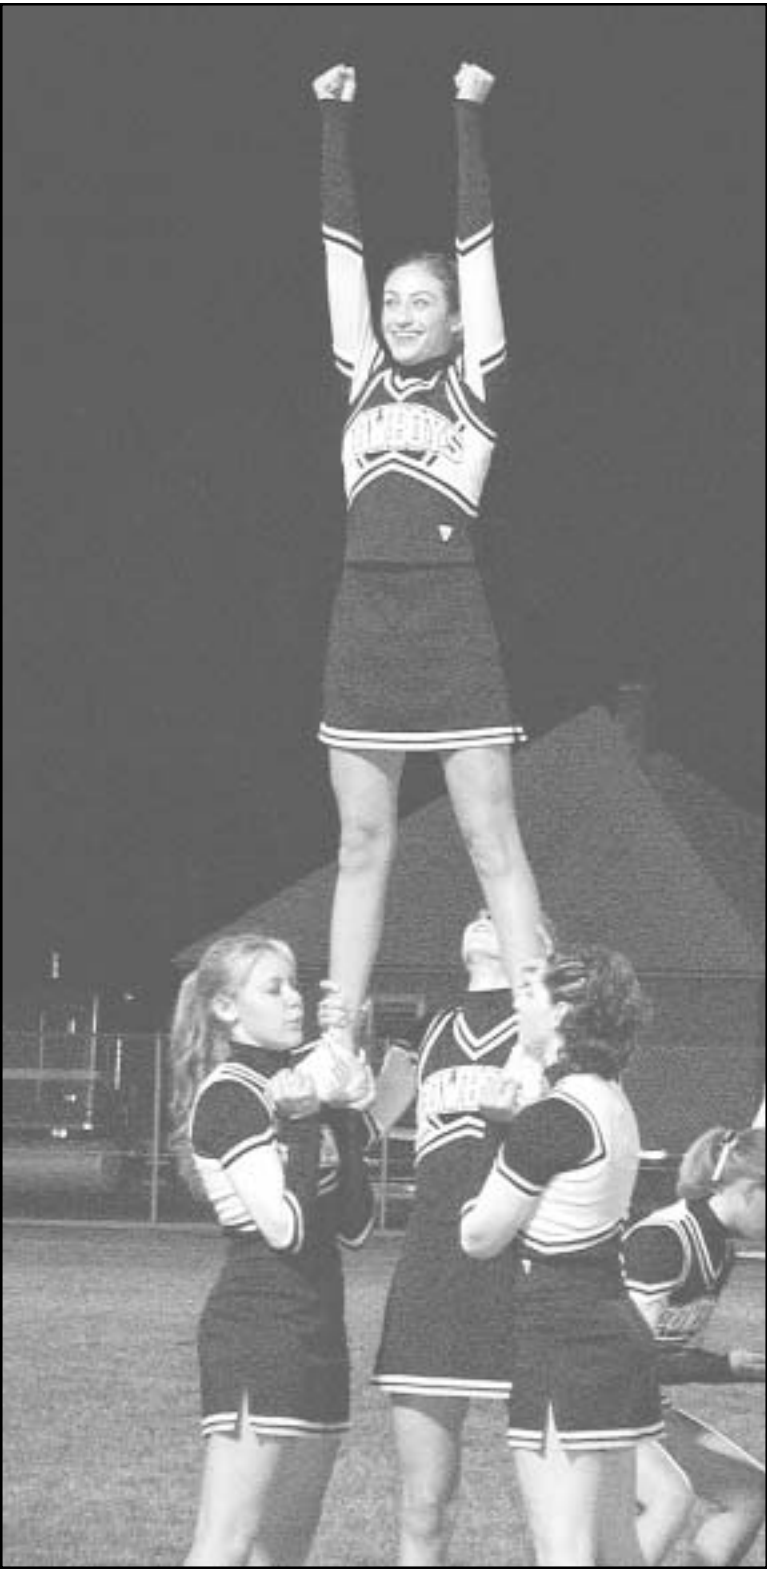

The honored class of 1954 rode a flatbed trailer in the Homecoming parade Thursday night. The parade wandered south on Main, turning at 13th Street and continuing to the high school. The celebration featured the marching band, the "Jumping Juniors," sports teams and floats.

Photo by Greg Stover/The Goodland Star-News

Three-year-old Tristen Stasser (left) watched the traditional homecoming bonfire with his grandmother, Carol Johnson. After the band finished playing at the pep rally, Student Council President Aubrey Winter lit the bonfire. The crowd gathered around to celebrate Homecoming — and to warm up.

Photo by Kathryn Gurfinkel/The Goodland Star-News

Cheerleader Amanda Amthor was held up by Megan Sheldon (left) and Tiffany Wing (right) and spotted by Kara Angelos in a stunt at the homecoming pep rally Thursday night. The cheerleaders performed a dance routine and helped excite the crowd with Goodland cheers.

Photo by Kathryn Gurfinkel/The Goodland Star-News

Goodland High football seniors tackled and wrangled a person dressed up like a Red Devil, the Oberlin mascot, in a skit at the homecoming pep rally Thursday. The team rode into the stadium on all-terrain vehicles and introduced themselves.

Photo by Kathryn Gurfinkel/The Goodland Star-News