

Powwow to victory

Coach Jerry McKee encouraged the Cowgirls during their match against Grinnell on Saturday at the Oakley Plainsmen Volleyball Invitational. The team went on to defeat Grinnell 25-17, 25-22. Goodland went 3-1 and was named the tournament champion. The junior varsity also won its tournament also with a 3-1 record.

It's waaay up there!

Katie Clancy (No. 6) of Grant Junior High's seventh-grade volleyball team waited for the ball to come down during Thursday's match at Oakley. Angie Hillmer (No. 13) and Alexis Bateman backed her up on the play. The Lady Mustangs beat Oakley 25-22, 26-28 and 15-10.

Trojans do well in Oklahoma

The Colby Community College Trojans cross country team had another successful weekend, this time among a much larger field and at longer distances than usual.

The Trojan men finished 13th out of 22 teams, mostly from larger universities, at the Cowboy Jamboree in Stillwater, Okla. Oklahoma State University was the host.

They were led by sophomore Felipe Longoria (Scottsbluff, Neb.), who finished the 8K race in 27:59, 58th out of over 200 men. Freshman Derrick Monson (Lamar, Colo.) was right behind Longoria, with a time of 28:00, and a 59th place finish.

There were no women's team competition, but the Colby women did well individually. Freshman Cassie Manion (Valley Center) finished the 5K race 71st out of more than 180 runners with a time of 21:00.

The Trojan runners' next action is this coming weekend at Fort Hays State University beginning at 10 a.m. Saturday.

Cowgirls varsity tennis team goes to Scott City Thursday for final meet of regular season.
