

Country music hits chord with crowd

A crowd of over 200 attended the Wild Blue Country concert on Saturday, Jan. 29 at the high school auditorium. The Air Force Academy band played a variety of country songs during their show, and the audience gave them a standing ovation at the end. Master Sgt. Jerome Oddo (top right) was the lead singer on many of the selections, but band leader Senior Master Sgt. Jim E. Christian (top right, white hat) did his share of singing and played a little harmonica. Kansas native Master Sgt. James Bristow (right) is from Manhattan, and displayed his talents on the guitar with several solos. Master Sgt. Edgar Price (below) handled the steel guitar while Master Sgt. Chris Gaona (bottom right) handled the drums. The free concert was sponsored by The Goodland Star-News and the Goodland School District.
