Honor society gets new members

Parents, friends and relatives gathered in the Goodland High School auditorium Monday, Feb. 7, to congratulate 12 new members inducted into the school's National Honor Society.

Older members introduced the inductees, telling about their activities and proudest accomplishments.

The inductees then introduced their parents, who then "pinned" them, draping blue scarves around their necks.

Those honored were Daniel

Blake, Kelsey Leiker, Craig Mason, Mallory Younger, Katrina Cotter, Aaron Duell, Jordan Frazier, Justeen Koehler, Kaitlin Lee, Samantha Philbrick, Matt Rohr and Melissa Swager.

Current members are President Erinn Abernathy, Vice President Ana McClung, Secretary Megan Sheldon, Treasurer Emily Burkett, student council representative Dexter Deeds, Derrick Raymer, Shannon Johnson, David Livengood, Ashley Wing and Aubrey Winter.

After the induction, Black and Gold Booster Club members served punch and cookies to the students and their families in the library.

Boosters President Chuck Wilkens said the club is branching out to academic activities, trying to change its image of being just for sports. The Boosters are for all student activities, he said.

Vice President Brad Schields, Secretary Linda Saint, Treasurer Angie Winter and Leann Frederichs, a member, helped.

The Goodland Federated Music Club met at 7 p.m. Monday, Feb. 7, at the Sonrise Christian Church. President Eva Lou Selby called the meeting to order and led in repeating the Federation Collect.

Linda Lucas led the club in singing the state and local theme songs. She also reported on the hymn of the month and composer and led in singing "I Want Jesus to Walk with Me," a Negro spiritual arranged by Mark Blankenship.

Eight members answered roll call: Birkley Barnes, Martha Gunderson, Linda Koons, Lucas, Joanna Norris Grimshaw, Selby, Nancy Shores and Isabelle Hellerud. President Selby welcomed guest Andrew Shores.

Gunderson introduced the program; the theme was "Love to Sing, Sing of Love." Barnes led the group in singing four love songs, "I Love You a Bushel and a Peck," by Frank Loesser; "Let Me Call You Sweetheart," by Leo Freidman; "As Time Goes By," by Herman Hupfeld; and "The Riddle Song," an American folk song.

Nancy Shores and Linda Koons shared the piano bench to play a duet, "En bateau," by Claude Debussy. Grimshaw accompanied herself with guitar while she sang two folk songs, "Just Before the Battle, Mother," a humorous Civil War song, and "Barbry Allen," a song from Scotland.

Koons played a piano solo, "Songs Without Words," Opus 30, No. 1, by Felix Mendelssohn.

Gunderson concluded the program with a course of study on John Phillip Sousa. She used as a source of reference "Marching Along: Recollections of Men, Women and Music" by John Phillip Sousa and played several Sousa marches on a compact disc.

Selby conducted a short business meeting. After the meeting adjourned, refreshments were served by hostesses Barnes and Koons.

The theme for the next meeting will be "Songs for the Spirit." Koons and Lucas will host the meeting at 7 p.m. Monday, March 7, at the Our Lady of Perpetual Help Catholic Church.
