

Brewster churches to celebrate World Day of Prayer this Friday

Nadine Kammer stopped by the senior center to let us know that the annual World Day of Prayer for Brewster area churches will be held Friday at the Brewster United Methodist Church.

Everyone is invited to participate, and the time will be 9:30 a.m. for fellowship with worship at 10 a.m.

Brewster was saddened to hear about another former resident, Elmer Query, passing away on Saturday, Feb. 19, at his home in Goodland. He is survived by his wife Maxine and five children and several grandchildren and great-grandchildren.

Our condolences are sent out to each of them. His funeral was held Thursday, Feb. 24, with burial in the Goodland Cemetery.

Larry and Judy Dunlap enjoyed a vacation during part of January and February. On Jan. 20, they left for Estancia, N.M., where they attended the wedding of their granddaughter, Sarah Ann Dunlap.

Sarah and her sisters attended school in Brewster several years ago when their parents, Todd and Michele Dunlap lived here. Sarah married Matthew Ryan Champlin on Saturday, Jan. 22, at the Emmanuel Baptist Church in Estancia.

Other family members that joined Larry and Judy in traveling to the happy event were Dale Dunlap, Larry's mother; Jerry and Yette Dunlap of Clovis, N.M.;

Kevin, Alice, Tanner and Tonya Dunlap of Mountainaire, N.M.; Mark Dunlap of Portales, N.M.; and Mike, Brett and Garrett Dunlap of Highland.

Needless to say, Larry and Judy enjoyed the reunion with their sons and families for the occasion. Sarah and Matthew will make their home in Moriarty, N.M.

On Jan. 24, Larry and Judy left for Las Vegas to spend three weeks with Dennis and Pat Owens of Las Vegas, formerly of Colby. Jerry and Yetta Dunlap arrived on Feb. 1 and spent a week.

All too soon, it was time for Larry and Judy to return home, but they are enjoying all the terrific memories of the time spent with family and friends. They are looking forward to May 28, when many of their family members will be back to enjoy the alumni reunion held that weekend.

What do you get when you put two old friends who happen to be local news writers together for lunch? The quickest lunch hour you've ever seen.

Sondra Barnett and I met at Village Inn last Tuesday and reminisced and compared grandchildren numbers (she has me beat). When Roger died, Sondra wrote a note in a card about how she could picture

Bill and Roger sitting and talking together, and that gave me a great vision that eased the hurt.

Anyway, it was great to see her again, and I do hope she continues to recover quickly from her rotator cuff surgery. That's a rough one!

Needless to say, the conversations in Brewster this week are quickly getting around to the regional playoffs, and both boys and girls are in them, and I am sure they are going to be terrific. I wouldn't be surprised if there are already some reservations being made at Hays for the state games.

We'll see you, and hope you have a great week.
