

Gobs o' green brighten St. Patrick's Day at Good Sam

Les Perry (left), a Good Samaritan Center resident, was decked out in a green sweatshirt, black pants with green and white shamrocks and a green beard for the center's St. Patrick's Day party Thursday. Sharon Lightle, activities assistant, and Sherry Helton (above), the center's activities director, served green punch, green chips and snack cakes at the party. Angie Smith (right) of Tribune played her accordion.

Student earns honors

Tiffany Elisse Schwasinger, a Goodland High School graduate, joined the National Society of Collegiate Scholars and Golden Key International Honor Society.

Schwasinger

She was inducted into the society of scholars during a ceremony in the fall at the University of Nebraska-Lincoln. She was honored for the Golden Key membership at a recent campus ceremony.

The society of scholars is a selective, national nonprofit honors organization. Founded in 1994, it recognizes first- and second-year undergraduates.

Golden Key was founded more than 25 years ago in Atlanta to recognize college juniors and seniors in the top 15 percent of their classes. It has 335 chapters in the United States, Australia, Canada, Great Britain, Malaysia, New Zealand and South Africa.

Membership is by invitation only, to students in all fields of study.
