Expo to help caregivers make tough decisions

Have you thought about a living will or a durable medical power of attorney? Do you see a loved one in need of assisted living or a nursing facility in the near future?

These issues are tough and unpleasant, but most of us will face them at some point in our lives.

“Full Circle... an Aging Expo,” a conference for caregivers, is set for Thursday, April 21, at the Gateway in Oberlin and Friday, April 22, at the First Presbyterian Church in Hays.

The event will include three breakout sessions with nine topics to choose from, a keynote speaker, lunch and snacks. The keynote topic is “Identity Theft and Personal Security” by Scott Teeslink, a former KBI agent, now with Kansas Farm Bureau.

A trade show will be on hand, featuring care giving agencies and business representatives. Topics on the program range from dementia to long-term care insurance to prescription drug programs.

Early registration of $15 is due to the Decatur County Extension Office by today for both the Oberlin and Hays locations. To register, contact the Sherman County Extension Office at 899-4880 or the Northwest Research and Extension Center at (785) 462-6281. For information, go to DC@lists.oznet.ksu.edu or call (785) 475-8121 for the Oberlin location. Or contact EL@lists.oznet.ksu.edu or call (785) 628-9430 for the Hays location.

The registration includes the program, lunch, snacks and materials. Walk-ins are welcome at $20, but lunch is not guaranteed.
