The Colby High School softball team continued its domination over Goodland, sweeping a doubleheader from the Cowgirls on Friday at Centennial Park 15-0, after six innings, and 9-2.

On April 8 in Colby, the Lady Eagles swept a doubleheader from the Cowgirls 10-3 and 10-0 after five innings. The latest losses left Goodland 4-8 for the season.

Colby junior Sarah Redmond pitched a perfect game in Friday's opener, facing just 18 batters in six innings and striking out 11 of them. The Eagles scored their first two runs in the top of the second inning, adding four in the fourth and two more in the fifth.

Leading 8-0, Colby sent 12 batters to the plate in the top of the sixth, scoring seven runs for a 15-0 lead. In the bottom of the inning, Redmond struck out the first and third Cowgirl batters, with the second being thrown out at first. That ended the game under the "10-after-5" rule.

The Eagles' momentum kept going on into the second, as they jumped out to a 2-0 lead in the top of the first. Colby's defense held Goodland to its seventh straight "three-and-out" of the day.

The Eagles scored two more runs in the top of the second to double their lead at 4-0. Goodland go on the scoreboard in the bottom of the inning when junior Justeen Koehler scored on a passed ball. Earlier, Senior Aubrea Winter covered first base in the Cowgirls' second game against Colby on Friday.

Koehler hit a grounder to the Colby second baseman but because of an error on the throw to first, she was able to get safely to third and into scoring position.

Colby increased its lead to 7-1 after the third inning and to 9-1 after the fourth. In both innings, Goodland went three-and-out, and the Cowgirls returned the favor in the top of the fifth.

In the bottom of the fifth, junior Chelsea Gray hit a pop fly to the Colby shortstop but it was dropped, allowing Gray to get on base. She advanced to second on a sacrifice bunt by sophomore Shandel Simon, then stole third on the second pitch to senior Aubrea Winter. On the fifth pitch, Winter hit the ball down the first base line. She was forced out but that allowed Gray to score.

Neither team would score again, and final was 9-2.

Koehler, Gray and junior Melissa Swager each got a hit for Goodland in the second game. The Eagles combined for 16 hits in the first game and 10 in the second.

Junior Jordan Frazier pitched all 13 innings for the Cowgirls, getting six strikeouts in the first game and seven in the second. In the first, she gave up 16 hits and walked seven. In the second, she allowed 10 hits and walked two.

Redmond pitched both games for the Colby. In the second, she gave up just three hits, all singles, and just one walk while striking out seven.

The junior varsity lost both of its games against Colby, 14-9 and 21-7, the second after five innings. The junior varsity is 2-8 for the season.

The Cowgirls were to have played a doubleheader in Scott City on Monday and will be in action at 3 p.m. today at Centennial Park for a doubleheader against the Lady Tigers of Ulysses.

The team will be in Holcomb on Thursday for a doubleheader against the Lady Longhorns.
