

Sweet Adelines meet, elect officers

Members of the Hi-Plains Harmony chorus of Sweet Adelines International held their annual meeting to elect board members. New members are Florence Antholz of Atwood, Janine Gruwell of Norton and Sharon Steele and Sarah Saddler of Colby. Current board members are Joan Wessel of Selden, Eve Lou Selby of Brewster and Marge Miller and Sheila Krebbiel of Colby. The chorus plans a guest night at 6:30 p.m. Mountain Time next Tuesday at the Colby United Methodist Church. All women are welcome to attend and enjoy the singing, fellowship and refreshments. Call 785-462-6553.

Goodland graduate accepts Atlanta job

Eric Mai, a 1994 Goodland High School graduate, graduated from Keller Graduate School of Management with a master's degree in business administration, concentrating on finance, last fall. He recently accepted a job in the general counsel's office at Novelis Inc. in Atlanta. Mai is the son of Nancy and Scott Gilmer of Goodland and

Mai

David Mai of Lawrence. He lives in Overland Park with his wife Jordan, daughter Hayden and son Derek. They will move to Atlanta in June. Novelis was formed in 2005 and is a spin-off from Toronto-based Alcan. The company is a world-wide leader in aluminum rolling and packaging, having 37 facilities in 12 countries.

VFW Auxiliary meets, inducts new member

The Ladies Auxiliary to the Veterans of Foreign Wars held its April meeting at 5:30 p.m. Thursday. President Brenda Frankenfeld called the meeting to order.

Kim Wakefield from California was inducted as a new member. Thank you cards were read from Karen Goken, the Goodland High School X-Pressos and the Kansas Soldier's Home at Fort Dodge. The auxiliary served the Linin Benefit and the election board lunch.

The Ninth District Spring Convention was held in Goodland last weekend. State representatives were Jim Graham, department junior vice commander, and Frances Parks-Rice, department junior vice president.

Linda Marshall, Hays, and J.T. Plummer, Oakley, conducted the meetings. The local auxiliary received awards for projects completed in National Home, membership, PAC/Legislative and Youth Activities.

Michael Smith from Goodland presented his Ninth District Voice of Democracy winning speech at the banquet. The department convention will be held Thursday-Saturday, June 2-4, in Topeka.

Melva Stephan would like more members to join the Sympathy Club. It costs $2 to join, and a benefit is paid to the member's family upon the member's death. Call Melva at 899-6192.

The local scholarships have been awarded and will be announced at graduation. D.J. Sparks has received a $1,000 scholarship from the department endowment association.

The auxiliary will provide cinnamon rolls for the achievement breakfast Wednesday, May 11, at the high school and will provide lunch for the Run for the Wall motorcycle group Sunday, May 22, in Oakley.

Members are encouraged to help with these projects or to be on the overpass from 9:30-10 a.m. on the 22nd with flags to show their support for this group of veterans.

The charter was draped in memory of Fawn Mottsinger, Edna Harris and Mildred Tippery.

Because the national auxiliary has increased its dues, it was moved and seconded to raise the local dues to $20. The motion passed.

This will be in effect for the 2006 dues. They can be paid starting in August. Out of that $20, dues are paid to the national auxiliary and to the department, and members receive a cancer insurance policy.

A donation was made to Genesis for its matching fund drive.

Officers for the new year will be Brenda Frankenfeld, president; Charlene Fenner, senior vice president; Dorothy Fairbanks, junior vice president; Iris Schoepner, treasurer; Rita Deane, secretary; Tess Luckert, chaplain; and Rita Erickson, conductress.

Members are encouraged to attend the meeting Thursday, May 26, for the installation of these officers.

Memorial Day weekend activities include placing auxiliary flags at the cemetery at 4 p.m. Friday, May 27, and presenting a ceremony at 8:30 a.m. at Brewster, at 10 a.m. at Goodland and at 11:30 a.m. at Kanorado Monday, May 30. Flags will be picked up at 4:30.
