4-H news

The regular monthly meeting of the Sunflower 4-H Club was held Sunday, April 24, at the First United Methodist Church. It was the parents of the officers' turn to conduct the meeting.

Acting President Lori Rietcheck called the meeting to order. Roll call, "Think of Something Brown and Fuzzy," was answered by 16 members, two leaders and six parents.

Songbird Kelly Studer led the group in "Home on the Range."

The business meeting consisted of leaders Jeanne and Sonya telling the group about important dates to remember, including weigh-in on April 29, county camp dates of June 7-10, fishing clinic on June 16 and the last day to add or drop projects, May 2.

The parade theme this year is "A Wheelin' Squealin' Good Time." The Northwest Kansas District Free Fair will be Aug. 3-6, and the fair-ground cleanup is scheduled for July 29.

Jeanne congratulated the group on the Alternate Regional Blue ribbon and all the individuals for participation in Regional 4-H Days. The Red Cross baby-sitting clinic was scheduled for April 30. The Spring Livestock Show will be May 13 and 14, with the entry deadline of May 10.

Vice President Kelly Studer then opened the evening's program. Sonya Vandiver started the program off with a delicious demonstration entitled "Sweet Treat Tortillas." Connie Johnson gave an informative health and safety tip on Summer Emergency First Aid Kits.

Recreation was led by Ryan Irvin and was a game called Unknown Ball Race. Refreshments were served by the Chadwick and Irvin families.

President Lori Rietcheck called the meeting back to order and announced the next meeting would be Monday, May 16.
