Tennis team beats Hoisington, Colby

The Goodland High boys tennis team capped an 11-day run where it won three of four events by defeating both Hoisington and Colby on Tuesday at a triangular meet in Hoisington.

Sophomore Josh Cech won both of his matches at No. 1 singles, beating Tanner Glad of Colby 8-5 and Zane Ochs of Hoisington 8-0. Senior D.J. Sparks, playing No. 2 singles, won both of his, defeating Trevor Siebert of Colby 8-5 and Blaine Barnard of Hoisington 8-4.

The Cowboys No. 1 doubles team of seniors Jake Johnson and Juan Velasco lost to Colby 8-3, then came back to win against Hoisington 8-1. Senior Daniel Blake and freshman Nathan Brady lost both their matches at No. 2 doubles by the same score, 8-0.

Goodland scored 13 points to Colby's 12. Hoisington scored five. Last Saturday at a tournament in Colby, the Cowboys placed second out of five teams. Johnson and Velasco teamed up to win all four of their matches to finish first at No. 1 doubles. Cech won three of his four matches at No. 1 singles to finish second.

Brady finished fourth at No. 2 singles, and sophomores Cody Engel and Doug Eddleman finished fifth at No. 2 doubles.

Colby won the tournament with 37 points. Goodland scored 21. Garden City ended up third with 17, Liberal fourth with 15 and Scott City fifth with 4.

On April 26, the Cowboys won a tournament in Larned. Velasco, playing No. 1 singles, and Cech, playing No. 2 singles, both won all four of their matches to place first.

The No. 1 doubles team of Johnson and Sparks went 2-2, finishing third, and the No. 2 team of Brady and Jared Hall went 1-3 for fourth. Goodland scored 24 points, four better than Pratt. Larned was third with 19, Ellinwood fourth with 18 and Ellsworth fifth with 11.

On April 23, Cech won all five of his matches at No. 1 singles without losing a game as the Cowboys won the tournament in Scott City. The No. 1 doubles team of Johnson and Velasco also won all five of their matches, including shutouts of one of the teams from Colby and the pair from Liberal.

The No. 2 doubles team of Sparks and Blake went 4-1, finishing first. At No. 2 singles, Engel went 2-3 to finish fourth.

Goodland scored 42 points with Garden City, finishing second with 34. Scott City was third with 25, Liberal fourth with 22 and Colby fifth with 20. Colby entered two teams in both doubles brackets while Scott City entered two players at both No. 1 and 2 singles.

Cowgirls lose softball games to Lady Longhorns, 12-11 and 13-3

The Goodland Cowgirls softball team lost both games of a make-up doubleheader Tuesday, 12-11 and 13-3, against the Lady Longhorns in Holcomb.

The losses dropped the girls' season record to 5-11.

In the first game, both teams scored 11 runs by the end of the fourth inning, but the score remained tied until the bottom of the seventh, when, with two outs, Holcomb scored the winning run on a solid hit to left field.

In the second game, the Longhorns took a 3-0 lead after the first inning, increased it to 5-1 after the second then led 9-1 after four. The Cowgirls picked up a pair of runs in the top of the fifth, but Holcomb picked up one in the bottom of the inning then got three more in the sixth, ending the game by rule 13-3.

Goodland will play its final home games of the regular season starting at 3 p.m. today at Centennial Park in a doubleheader against the Lady Monarchs of Thomas More Prep-Marian of Hays.

In the opener on Tuesday, all nine Goodland players got at least one hit as the Cowgirls out-hit Holcomb 17-15.

Goodland scored five runs in the top of the first. Senior Ciara Abbey and junior Justeen Koehler each drove in two runs. However, the Longhorns scored five runs of their own in the bottom of the inning to tie the score.

The Cowgirls scored four more runs in the top of the second, highlighted by a two-run triple by junior Melissa Swager. Holcomb matched Goodland's total in the bottom of the inning to make it 9-4 after two.

The Longhorns took an 11-9 lead in the bottom of the third, then the Cowgirls tied it back up in the top of the fourth. Neither team scored in the fifth or sixth. Then with the score still 11-4, Holcomb's defense held Goodland scoreless for the third straight inning. Holcomb scored the winning run in the bottom of the seventh.

In the second game, the Longhorns performance at the plate actually got better while the Cowgirls began to falter, getting only six hits to Holcomb's 19.

The Longhorns jumped out to a 3-0 lead in the first. Goodland got on the scoreboard in the top of the second when Koehler got on base with a single and scored on a sacrifice fly by senior Aubrea Winter. Holcomb responded with two runs in the bottom of the second to take a 5-1 lead.

Neither team scored in the third, but the Longhorns picked up four more runs in the bottom of the fourth for a 9-1 lead. In the top of the fifth, sophomore Shandel Simon got on base with a triple, then was driven home by a double by junior Chelsea Gray. Gray later scored on a sacrifice fly by Swager to make it 9-3.

Holcomb got one of the those back in the bottom of the fifth, then, after holding Goodland scoreless in the top of the sixth, scored three more in the bottom of the sixth to make it 13-3. That ended the game on the "10-after-five" rule.

Simon led the Cowgirls with five hits, including a double and a triple, driving in a run and scoring three. Gray ended the day with four hits, including a double, scoring three and driving in another. Swager had three hits, drove in three and scored one herself.

The junior varsity swept its doubleheader against Holcomb, winning 8-4 and 10-1, and improving to 6-8 for the season.
