

Good scores, attitude bring special reward

Gold Cards awarded for top efforts

Early lunches are the reward for Goodland High Students who earn Gold Cards, said Connie Liven-good of the school's attitude com-mittee.

A total of 33 students have earned Gold Cards this year for good grades, good attitude and good lead-ership. Gold Card students can take off early for lunch Tuesday through Friday from 11:15 a.m. to 12:30 p.m..

The attitude committee is part of the school improvement plan.

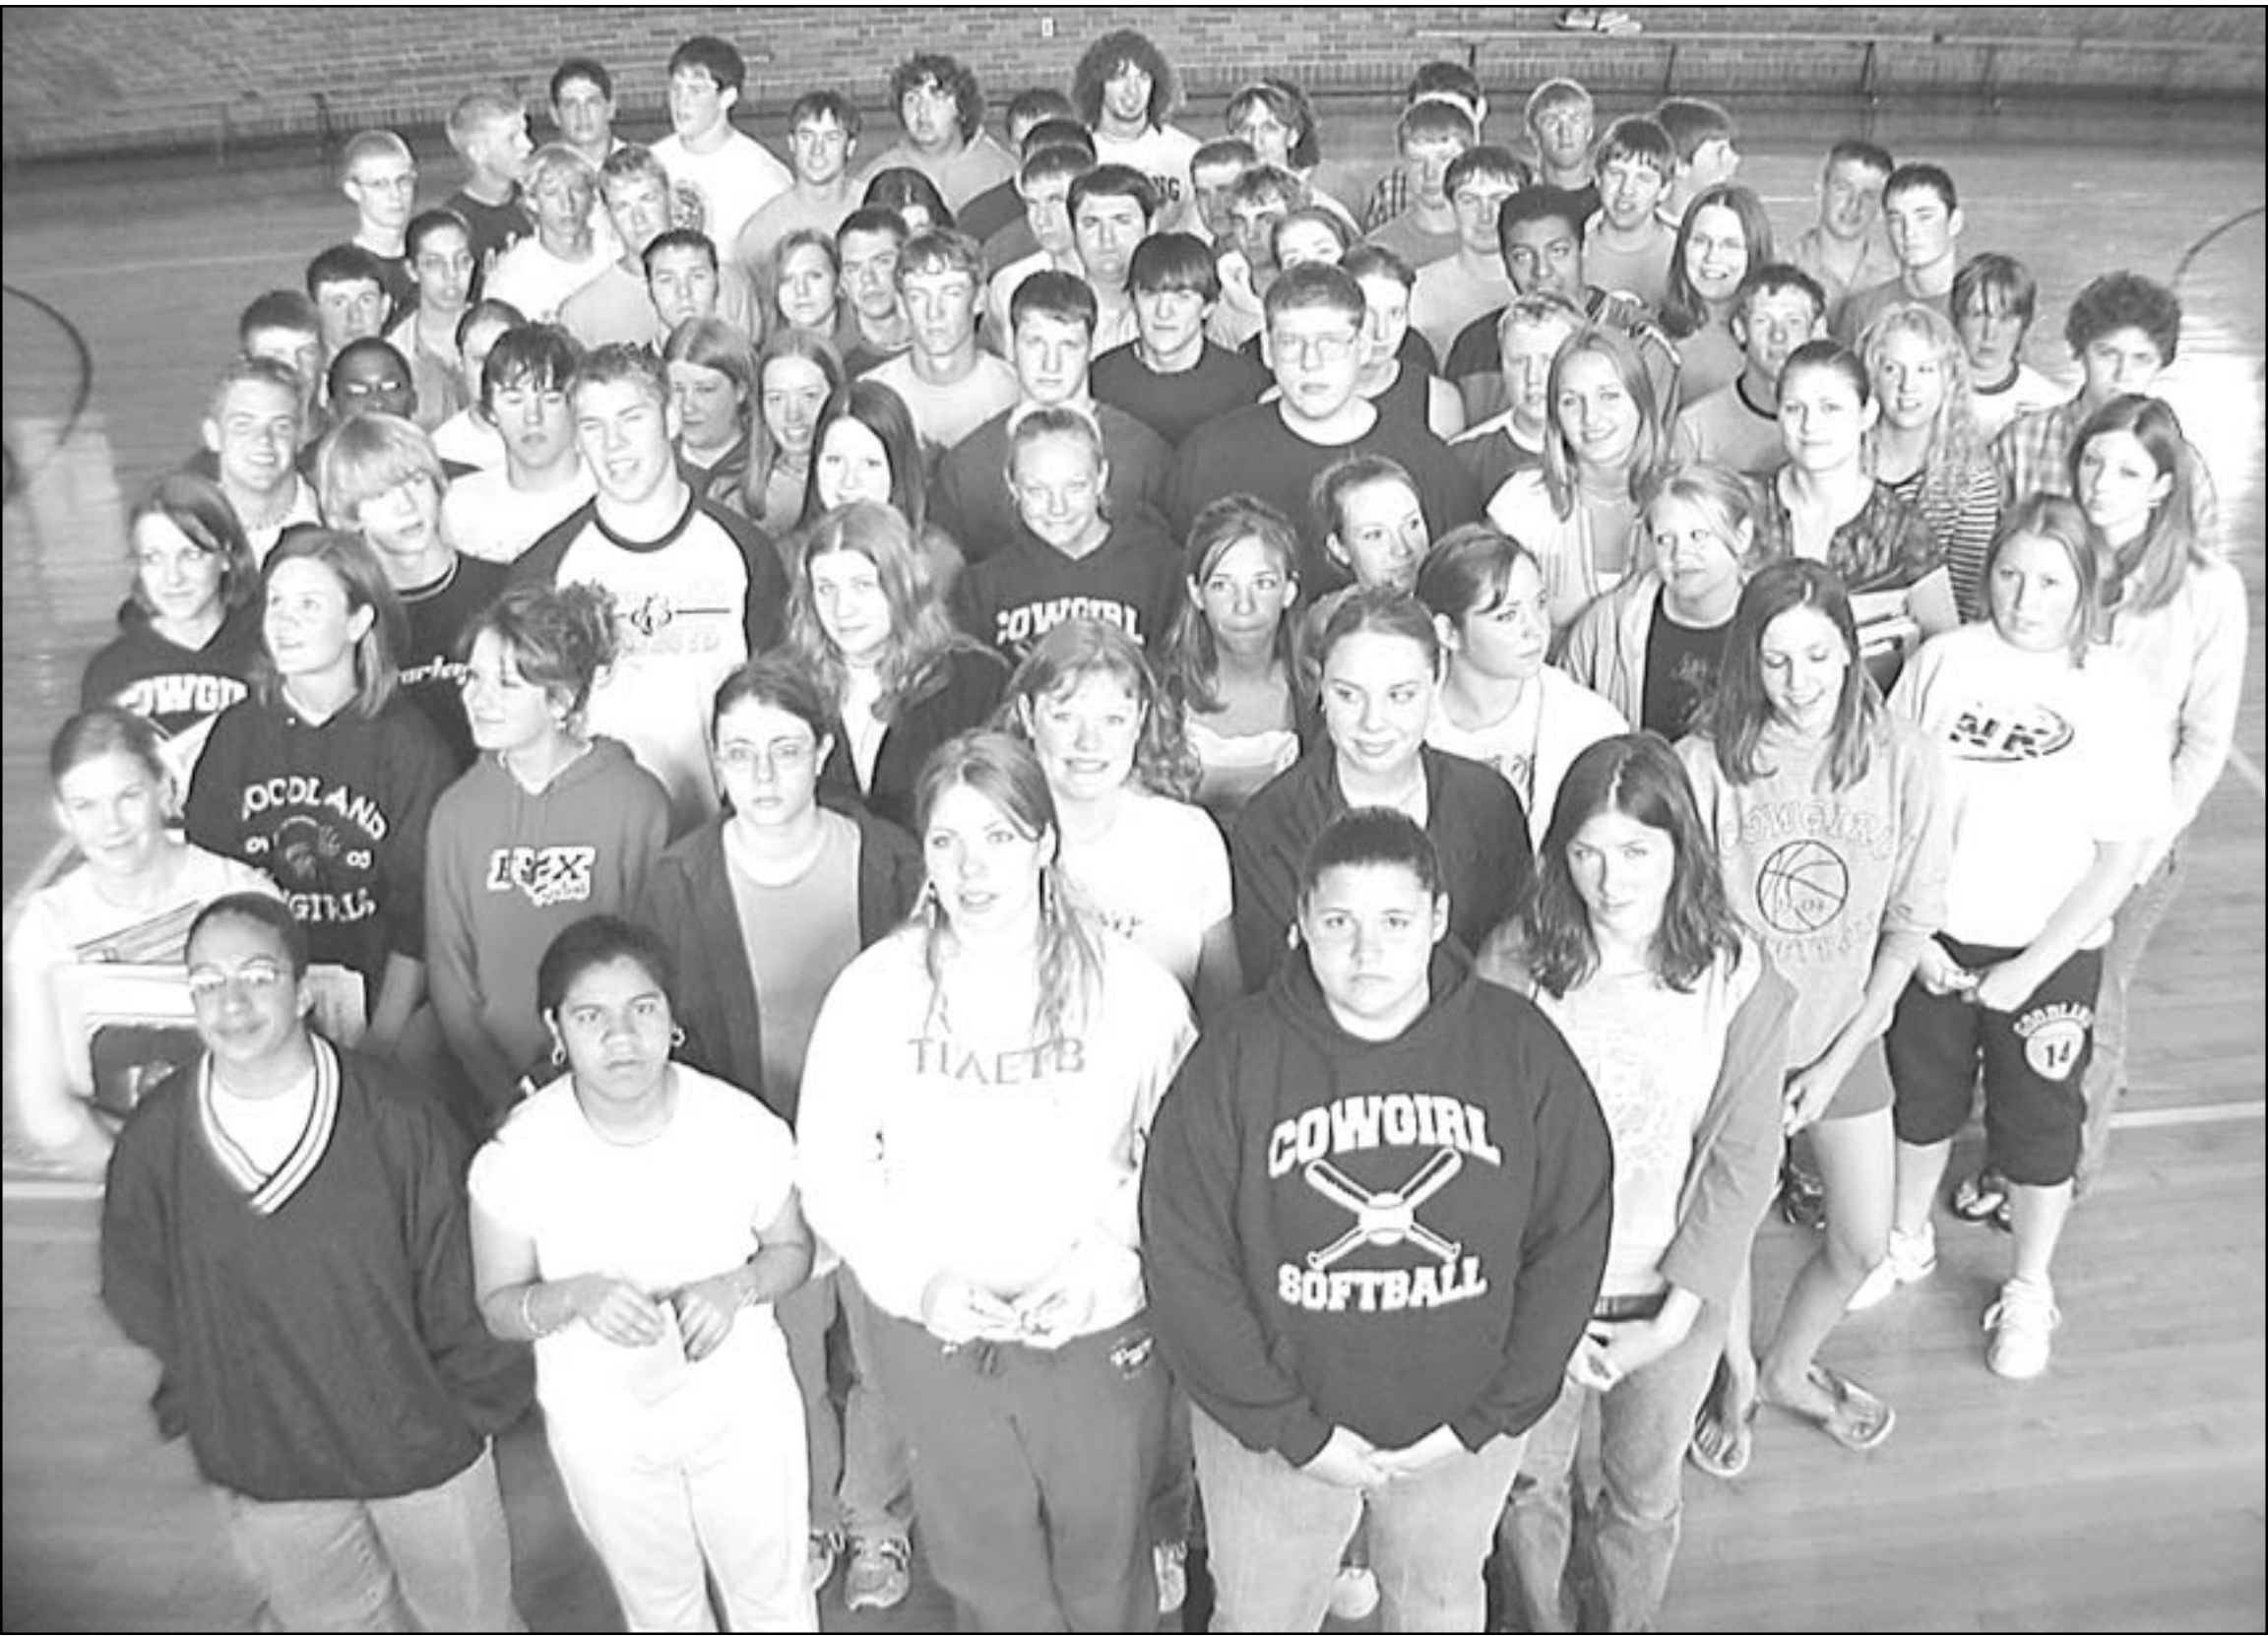

The Gold Card students this year were Erinn Abernathy, Richard Bauman, Robert Benavides, Amy Cebula, Kelsey Leiker, Craig Mas-son, Derrick Raymer, Simon Wang, Ciara Abbey, Jacob Alander, Kara Angelos,

Daniel Blake, Emily Burkett, Brandon Cowan, Dexter Deeds, Jacob Johnson, Shannon Johnson, Charles Lammers, Grace Langness, David Livengood, Tysen Lofland, Ana McClung, Jeffrey Moore, Abby Murray, Megan Sheldon, Sh-annon Showalter, Wade Taylor, Drew Wilkens, Ashley Wing, Joy Winkler, Aubres Winter, Lane Winter and Mallory Younger. Faculty members of the attitude committee are Livengood, Tremon Kizer, Mark Hagerman, Wallace Hansen, Sara Short, Melody Harder, Travis Witman, Duane Unger and Pat Hansen.

Goodland High School students who were awarded Gold Cards gathered in the high school gym before taking off for an early lunch in April. The Gold Card program is part of the high school improvement program, and the students are being rewarded for having good grades, good attitude and good leadership.

Photos by Tom Betz / The Goodland Star-News

Over 100 juniors and sophomores gatahered in the high school gym in April for scoring high on the state assessment tests given in March. The students were rewarded for their efforts with an early lunch period. The early lunch program is part of the highs school improvement plan, and the stu-dents were recommended for the early lunch by the High Expectation Committee at the high school.

High state test scores get special recognition

Over 100 juniors and sopho-mores were rewarded with an early lunch in April, for high scores on state assessment tests given in March.

The early lunch was recom-mended by the High Expectations Committee of the high school for students who scored at proficient or above on the tests.

The tests were given online, and 60 percent of the juniors achieved the proficiency level in social sci-ence. On the reading test 56 percent were proficient. Of the juniors 33 had proficient scores on both tests.

Forty-one percent of the sopho-mores scored proficient or above on the state math and science tests. Of the sophomores 28 were proficient on both tests.

Juniors who got an early lunch were Christopher Baumfalk, Jonathan Beeson, Zachary Breininger, Nichole Buskirk, Katrina Cotter, Wyatt Dautel, Aaron Duell, Alicia Felver, Derek Fenner, Daniel Finnell, Jordan Frazier, Chelsea Gray, Andrea Grieve, Brandon Hatfield, Jase Herl,

Justin Holloway, Justeen Koehler, Brett Lalicker, Kaitlin Lee, Julie Leiker, Brady Nelson, Bryant Nemecheck, Chelsea Ontizveroz, Samantha Philbrick, Lacy Ridder, Kaleen Riethack, Jared Robinson, Matthew Rohr, Megan Rubio, Daniel Schields, Tatum Schultz,

Tyler Selbe, Lance Sirtua, Jedediah Snethen, Mark Starr, Megan Stefan, Sara Studer, Melissa Swager, Briana Taylor, Lisha Tedford, Tiffany Thomas, Morgan Titus, Alex Weis, Janelle Wolak, Cory Yarbrough and Brandon Zelfer.

Sophomores who scored high on the tests were Nancy Aguirre, Tyler Anderson, Nicholas Angelos, Whitney Archer, Brett Bahe, Kerri Bellamy, Kaylee Billinger, Sarah Borneman, Brian Boyce, Michael Bryce, Hannah Burkett, Ashley Ce-bula, Joshua Cech, Amber Cowan,

Mikey Doll, Brandon Douglas, Cody Engel, Taylor Frazier, Ryan Gausman, Josiah Goodley, Jared Hall, Tyler Hilmer, Nathan Linin, Kerek Mason, Jena McCall, Matthew Miller, Elizabeth Morris, John Mosbarger, Emily Murray,

Jilliam Parker, Dual Rall, Brett Schields, Lea Shores, Shandel Simon, Michael Smith, Alicia Studer, Chariss Tatman, Nathan Thomas, Landon Williams and Molly Witzel.

Members of the high expecta-tions committee are Gaylene Shank, Linda VanLoenen, Dennis Friedrichs, Mary Porterfield, Jon McLean, Gwen Cebula and Rich-ard Schwasinger.