

Pair goes to Kismet wedding

Warren and Bonnie Reid are back home after spending last weekend in Kismet. They attended the wedding of their granddaughter Amanda Jones to Ryan Kisner at the Kismet United Methodist Church.

Amanda is the daughter of John and Laurie Jones, and she and Ryan are students at Oklahoma Panhandle University in Goodwell, Okla.

On Mother's Day, guests at the home of Wilma Burk and Beverly Frailey were Janice and Larry Seligman and Shelly Seligman of McCook, Neb. They enjoyed a barbecue and visiting.

On Friday, May 13, Barbara Gilley Hoover was honored at a nurse pinning ceremony held at Beach Schmidt Auditorium on the campus at Fort Hays State University. That was in addition to graduating Magnum Cum Laude with a bachelor of science in nursing.

She has accepted a position as a psychiatric intake nurse at Regional Health Center in Independence, Mo.

Those attending the ceremony include Nic Hoover, Lenexa; Rod and Susan Gilley, Barbara's parents, Brewster; Jessica Ruffolo, Louisburg; Virginia Smiley and Carmelita Clark, Goodland; Dr. Peter Gillihan and Dr. Lynn Smiley of Chapel Hill, N.C.; and Rick and Beth Philbrick, Platte, Mo. Congratulations on this big step!

The open house at the senior center last Friday didn't bring a lot of folks in, but we did have some visitors that we enjoyed meeting and re-meeting. Dorothy Mayer, now of Leisure World, Ariz., and her daughter Tanya and husband, also of Arizona, were good to see.

Also, Darrell and Clara Brown of Kansas City, Kan., and Jerra Bray and Donna Gillam (maiden names) as well as Sonja Melton and Mrs. Kring of Colorado and Lucille Lewallen of Hollyrood and Ron and Marilyn Lewallen of Kansas City were all welcome guests.

You had better start planning to be in Brewster Saturday for the ninth annual citywide garage sale. There are several entrants, and I am sure there are going to be a lot of bargains for you hunters. Don't forget, that's Saturday, at Brewster. See you there!

Visitors bureau buys computer

By Sharon Corcoran

The Goodland Star-News

What do you do when your computer quits and you just can't get it going again? Hopefully, you buy a new one, but for Donna Price, director of the Sherman County Convention and Visitors Bureau, it required a vote from the board.

The board saw the need and voted to buy a new computer for Price at its regular meeting Thursday, May 19.

After some discussion, the board decided to go with a slightly higher bid because it included amenities the other didn't list. S&T Communications gave a bid $20 lower on the base price of the computer than did RMS Printing of Goodland, but the RMS bid included a larger screen, a larger battery, a one-year warranty and a faster processor.

The board voted to spend up to $1,840 on the Dell notebook, software and accessories.

In other business, the board:

- Talked about using a smaller flier rather than the Goodland Guide and decided to get details on the cost of each before choosing.

- Voted to renew the contract for three years to rent a billboard advertising Goodland on I-70 outside Salina for $175 per month.

- Voted to renew for six months a contract for space to distribute brochures from Limon, Colo., to Kansas City.

- Voted to buy a half-page, full color ad in the next Kansas Getaway Guide and to pay for listing in the guide the area hotels and campgrounds that collect the guest tax.
