Notorious 'Fleagle Gang'

Fingerprint ends nationwide '20s manhunt

True crime from the roaring 20s, "The Fleagle Gang, Betrayed by a fingerprint," begins with a brazen daylight bank robbery of the First National Bank in Lamar, Colo. on May 23, 1928. Four men are dead, and the robbers escaped. The author Tom (N.T.) Betz, editor of The Goodland Star-News, has spent a lifetime in journalism and on the Great Plains. "The Fleagle Gang" details the robbery/murder case which hinges on a single fingerprint found on a murdered Dighton, Kan., doctor's car. The fledgling FBI and new boss J. Edgar Hoover play a crucial role in turning the single fingerprint into solid evidence used to find, arrest and convict members of the Fleagle Gang. The FBI credits the Fleagle case as being the first time a single fingerprint was used to identify and convict criminals. The book includes over 100 photos and maps taken from court files and places where the gang robbed banks. A U.S. Navy journalist and a graduate of the University of Colorado, Betz started his career delivering papers for his family's newspaper in Lamar, Colo., winning the first of numerous journalism awards as a teenager. The Fleagle Gang robbed banks and trains in Larned, Kinsley, Marysville, Ottawa and McPherson Kan., Lamar, Colo., Eugene, Ore., Pittsburg, Calif. and countless others of over $1 million in the 10 years they operated. Three gang members — Ralph Fleagle, George Abshire and Howard Royston — were "jerked up" at the Colorado Penitentiary a little over two years after committing the Colorado bank robbery. The fourth, Jake Fleagle, was shot on a train in Branson, Mo. in Oct. 1930. Betz will be at the Wichita County Library in Leoti, Kan. at 2 p.m. on Sunday, July 24, to talk about researching the book and the local ties to the story. Copies of the book will be available for purchase, and for the author to sign.

"The Fleagle Gang" is available at the Big Timbers Museum in Lamar, Colo., the Lane County Museum in Dighton, Kan., the Fick Fossil and History Museum in Oakley, Kan., the Finney County Museum in Garden City, Kan., and the High Plains Museum in Goodland, Kan. It is available on-line from the publisher Authorhouse.com, Amazon.com, Barnes and Noble and other major book stores. Check out "The Fleagle Gang" web site at: nwkansas.com/home/fleaglegang.
