Quick start for fall sports

By Greg Stover

The Goodland Star-News
The Goodland High School fall sports season got off to a quick start with its first interscholastic competition taking place the day after classes started.

The Cowgirls tennis team opened its season last Thursday finishing in a tie with Hays High for second place at the tournament in Cimarron. On Tuesday the girls played in their second tournament of the new season placing third at Phillipsburg.

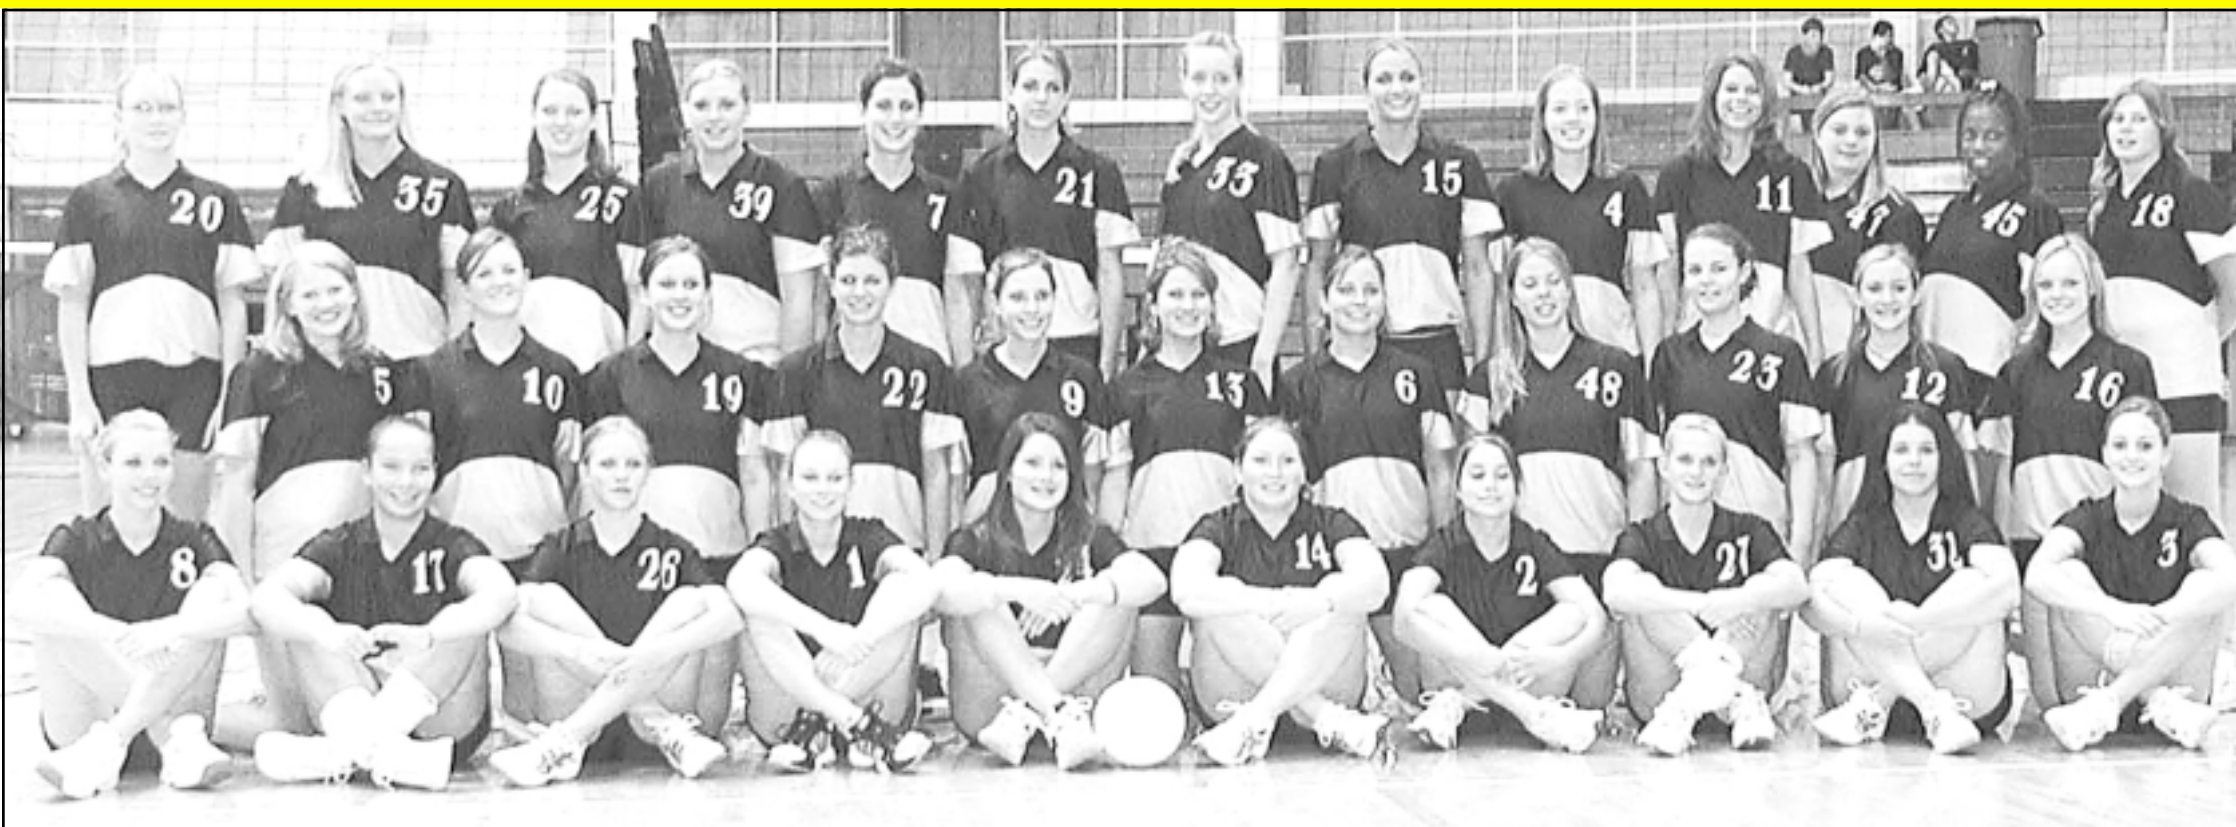

Coach Wallace Hansen has five returning letter winners from last year's squad: seniors Kali Rietcheck and Megan Stefan, and juniors Sandy Johnson, Jena McCall and Jillian Parker. New faces on the team are freshmen Hannah Blake, Kaitlin Fugleberg, Shonna Webster and Kathy Wood. Junior Josh Cech is the team's manager.

The team will hit the courts again today for a tournament in Colby.

Goodland's cross country teams opened their season Thursday with the Goodland Invitational held at Sugar Hills Golf Club. Boys returning from last year include junior Kerek Mason, and sophomores Toby Hurst and Dustin Pennington. Joining the team are senior Wanja Runkel, sophomore Chris Geeseka
