

Two Cowgirls go undefeated in tennis meet

The Goodland High girls tennis team won its home junior varsity meet on Tuesday, led by its two singles players who went undefeated for the day.

Five teams participated in the meet, with each match consisting of one six-game set with, if needed, a seven-point tie-breaker at 5-all. Matches were played at Steever and Chambers parks.

Junior Jena McCall, playing No. 1 singles, defeated her opponent from Greeley County High 6-0, Norton 6-1, Colby 6-0 and from Scott City 6-0.

Junior Sandy Johnson, at No. 2 singles, defeated Greeley County 6-0, Norton 6-0, Colby 6-3 and Scott City 6-5 (7-5).

The Cowgirls' No. 1 doubles team, freshmen Shonna Webster and Kaitlin Fugelberg, went 2-2 for the meet.

The pair defeated the team from Greeley County 6-5 (10-8) and from Scott City 6-4. They lost to Colby 6-2 and to Norton 6-5 (7-4).

Colby's Liz Erickson and Gilian Zumbriana were the meet's top No. 1 doubles team, finishing 4-0.

Freshmen Kathy Wood and Hannah Blake played No. 2 doubles for Goodland, finishing fourth after going 1-3.

The duo defeated their opponents from Greeley County 6-3, but lost to Norton 6-0, Colby 6-0 and to Scott City 6-2.

The No. 2 doubles teams from Colby and Scott City both went 3-1. However, Colby's Emily Dougherty and Cyndi Rothfuss earned the top spot based on their 6-4 win over Scott City's Christine Chambless and Emily Bennion.

Teams earned three points for each match win at No. 1 singles and doubles, and two points for each win at No. 2 singles and doubles.

Goodland scored 28 points, followed by Scott City with 24. Norton was third with 19 and Colby fourth with 18. Greeley County of Tribune scored nine points.

Mustangs win twice

Lady Bulldogs split

The Lady Bulldogs of Brewster High split their matches on Tuesday at a triangular meet in Bird City, beating host Cheylin High 25-10, 25-16 but falling to Golden Plains High of Rexford 23-25, 25-22 and 25-21.

"We had a few too many mental mistakes against a good Golden Plains team," said Bulldog coach Lynda McKee. "We need to cut down on the unforced errors and be more consistent with our passing. We will make some adjustments and hopefully learn from our mistakes."

The Bulldogs are now 14-2 for the season. Brewster rose two notches to No. 3 in this week's Class 1A rankings by the Kansas Volleyball Association.

Senior Caitlin Rush and junior Avery Schultz led Brewster with 11 kills each. Senior Jalyn Reid led the team with 19 assists and also had five kills. Rush had 17 assists. Junior Megan Allen had three service aces to lead the Bulldogs.

Brewster's junior varsity picked up a pair of wins in Bird City, beating Cheylin 25-11, 25-14 and Golden Plains 25-12, 26-28 and 15-6.

The next action for the varsity is a home quadrangular meet Tuesday with Greeley County, Triplains and Wallace County high schools.

Brewster will play host for an eight-team junior varsity tournament starting at 9 a.m. (Mountain Time) Saturday.
