EOE

The Sherman County Commissioners are accepting applications for the position of a 9-1-1 Communications Director with an Emergency Management background. The individual hired will need to have all the qualifications for the 9-1-1 Communications Director with the willingness to also serve as the Emergency Management Director. The salary will be commensurate with the qualifications of the individual hired with the salary range for this position being $35,000 to $45,000 per year. The County also has an excellent benefit package which includes: vacation, sick leave, KPERS, paid holidays, medical insurance with dental and prescription drug coverage, life insurance and short term disability insurance. The individual is also eligible to participate in a deferred compensation program.

The goal of Sherman County is to immediately fill the position of 9-1-1 Communications Director and have that individual eventually trained and willing to also take on the duties of an Emergency Management Director. During the interim, the County will have a qualified individual available to work with and help train the individual in the Emergency Management portion of the job (if they do not already have the qualifications).

Applications with resumes and references should be mailed to the Sherman County Clerk, 813 Broadway, Rm. 102, Goodland, Kansas 67735, no later than 5:00 p.m., November 8, 2005. Sherman County is an EOE
