Frankie Wimer

Frankie Carl Wimer, 58, Woodland, Wash., a Colby native, died Thursday, Oct. 13, 2005, at his home, following a 19-month battle with a brain tumor.

He was born July 15, 1947, in Colby, the son of Francis S. “Jack” Wimer and Eileen I. (Bowen) Harlin.

He moved with his family to the Kelso, Wash., area in 1956. In the early ’60s, he moved back to Kansas to live with his maternal grandmother in Brewster.

In 1964, Wimer joined the Navy, where he served as a boiler technician aboard the USS Paul Revere until in 1968. The ship deployed to Vietnam carrying troops and supplies.

In the mid ’70s, he followed his lifelong dream of driving a truck. He drove for various construction, logging, chip and long-hauling companies. Since 1989, he had been self-employed, most recently leasing his rig to Boise-Cascade Trucking Co. until his illness forced an early retirement in January 2004.

On Oct. 6, 1972, he married Linda Robinson in Kelso, Wash. In 1981, they moved their family to Woodland.

Wimer enjoyed being around his family and friends who drove the highways with him. Any Saturday morning that he was in town, you would find him at the coffee shop catching up on all the happenings. He was a member of the Woodland Nazarene Church.

Survivors include his wife; a daughter from a previous marriage, Angela Lane of College Station, Texas; a daughter, Joanna (Dennis) Karjola of Woodland; a son, Justin (Elizabeth) Wimer of Vacaville, Calif.; two sisters, Carolyn Krieder of Kelso and Martha Tienhaara of Naselle, Wash.; two brothers, Larry Wimer of Longview, Wash., and Richard Wimer of Kelso; and five grandchildren.
