

Brewster has a lot going on in the next couple of weeks

A lot of good things will be going on in town the next couple of weeks, so don't miss any of them.

The Beta Club's bake sale for the family of Mark Flanders will be held at the Heritage Center/Library 9 a.m. to 2 p.m. Saturday, Nov. 12. Stop in for a good book and cup of cider. They are also having a drawing for a quilt to support community projects.

The same day, Our Saviors Lutheran Church of Brewster will be serving a soup and dessert lunch between 11 a.m. and 3 p.m. at the church. If you would like lunch delivered to your home in Brewster, call the church that day at 694-2405.

Lesa Juenemann at 694-2575 or Dawn Schultz at 694-2425.

Saturday also is the annual open house at the Craft Peddler, so stop in and take on some new craft projects. It's that time of year to start your Christmas projects.

The Brewster Methodist Church had a wonderful turkey supper

Wednesday, Nov. 2, and wanted to thank everyone that came, and also thanked everyone that helped with the preparation and serving to make it such an enjoyable evening. They served about 270 people. Those who helped the United Methodist Women were the Lutheran Church, Levant Church, Brewster Community Church and many high school students. Thank you for all your support. The October meeting of the United Methodist Women was held Wednesday, Oct. 26, with seven members present. Doris Mayer presented the program on "Praying Women." She was assisted by Bonnie Reid, Wanda Fulwider, Nadine Kammer and Eva Lou Selby.

The program brought out many ways to enrich our prayer life. Doris then conducted the business meeting. Nadine Kammer gave the report from the "Response Magazine." The hostess, Joyce Crabtree, served a pumpkin roll and hot cider.

Bonnie Reid is home recovering from knee surgery. We wish her a fast recovery and hope to see her soon at the senior center.

Barbara Springsteen was visiting friends in Brewster for several days. It was good to see her at the Center.

Jon and Reva Eicher wanted everyone to know how much they appreciate all the help that the community has given them and the welcome back to Brewster everyone has shown. Like I told Reva, there is nothing like coming home to your roots.

The Brewster High School drama department is having its dinner theater Saturday. Dinner will be served at 6 p.m., followed by the play at 7:30. Sunday, there will be an encore presentation of the play at 3 p.m. There is no admission charge for either performance of the play, only the meal Saturday evening.

The annual board meeting for the Brewster Senior Center will be at 1:30 p.m. Sunday, Dec. 4. Everyone is welcome to attend.

Let us not forget to keep all of the ill and needy in our prayers, each and every day, and ask God to hold them in his arms and heal them and show them the way, His way.

Have a good week, and don't forget to join in on all the happenings on this month.

God bless you.

Artists can display, sell works in December

Area artists can display and sell their work at the Carnegie Arts Center in December.

There also will be one-of-a-kind Christmas ornaments and other decorations for sale, and the gift shop will offer unique gifts for the holidays.

Artists wanting to display their work should call 890-6442. Plans are to prepare the gallery for the show on Monday, Nov. 28.

Arts center selling tickets for Holiday Home Tour

Tickets are on sale at the Carnegie Arts Center for this year's Holiday Home Tour.

The tour will be from 1-4 p.m. Sunday, Dec. 4, visiting the homes of Dale and Jacque Schields, Josh and Koren Dechant and Michael and Loretta Borgmann.

Refreshments and an open house will be offered at the center during the tour. Money raised will benefit the Goodland Arts Council, and Wal-Mart Supercenter is offering a matching grant.

Two Goodland musicians to perform in Garden City

Two Goodland musicians will perform with the Garden City Community College Jazz Band next week.

Jeff Moore, Alto I, and D.J. Sparks, drums, will perform in Jazz Standards, a public concert, at 6 p.m. Mountain Time Thursday in the Pauline Joyce Fine Arts Building.

They are part of a 16-member ensemble conducted by the college band director, Jim McAllister. They will perform "Mr. Casual" by Les Hooper; "Route 66," arranged by Bob Lowden; "Turkey Shoot" by Paul Clark; Frank Mantooth's arrangement of "Little Girl Blue;" and McAllister's arrangement of "Little Sunflower."
