Yes, Santa is spirit of season

DEARABBY: I am 8 years old, and I have a question that has bothered me for months. Is Santa Claus a real person, and if not, why does everyone say he is? And if Santa Claus ISN'T real, where do all the letters go? - CON-FUSED IN KINGSTON, N.Y.

DEAR CONFUSED: Santa Claus is more than a human being. Santa Claus is the living symbol of selfless giving, handed down from one generation to the next. In 1897, a girl named Virginia asked the same question in a newspaper. Avery wise news- believer: paper editor, Frank Church, wrote in reply:

"Yes, Virginia, there is a Santa Claus. ... The most real things in the name and address printed on it, but no world are those which neither children return address. I assumed it was junk nor men can see. ... Thank God, he mail that had been made to look like a (Santa Claus) lives, and he lives for- Christmas card, but curiosity got the ever. A thousand years from now – nay, 10 times 10,000 years from now, he will continue to make glad the heart of childhood."

Letters to Santa Claus go where every other letter goes — directly to the U.S. Postal Service, which makes sure the letters reach their destination regardless of "rain, hail, sleet or snow."

Read on for a testimony from a true

DEAR ABBY: Yesterday afternoon, as I was opening my mail, I came across an envelope with my better of me, so I opened it.

Inside was a Christmas card. It was signed "Santa," and inside were five $100 bills!

I checked the postmark. It read, "Grand Rapids, Mich., Dec. 9." Abby, Idon't know anyone in Grand Rapids.

I'm divorced. My ex-husband hasn't been helping me to support our children. Times have been hard. Obviously, the card was sent by someone who cares about us very much someone who went to great trouble to remain anonymous. The money was a blessing. An equally great blessing is the fact that my children had a chance to witness such an act of generosity and kindness.

I hope that Santa is reading your column today, because I want to say thank you very much from the bottom of my heart. I am grateful. - STILL BELIEVES IN SANTA, HOUS-TON

DEAR STILL BELIEVES: I'm printing your letter with the conviction that some kind of elf will ensure that it is delivered as far north as a reindeer can fly. A perceptive person once said that true generosity is doing something nice for someone without taking credit for it. However, your case is exceptional – and how fitting of your benefactor, "Santa," to take a bow. I know readers of all ages will be as gratified as I was to read about his act of kindness in this, the season of giving.

DEAR ABBY: When you're a guest in someone's home and use the powderroom, and the only soap on the bathroom sink is the kind that's pretty and looks like little flowers - do you use one and throw it away when you're finished, or just rinse your hands with plain water? - EMBAR-RASSED IN DELAWARE

DEAR EMBARRASSED: Please don't feel embarrassed; yours is a very common question. The answer is that guests should feel free to use what is offered by their hosts. The hosts can throw away the soap later if they wish.
