Lakin's Sheldon Barnhardt tried to defend. The roles were reversed later in the game when Fenner (No. 21 at right) tried to keep Barnhardt (No. 55) from scoring a layup.

Broncs unsaddle Cowboys

The Goodland Star-News

The Goodland Cowboys were unsaddled Tuesday by the visiting Broncos of Lakin High, 78-65, in a nonleague contest at Max Jones Fieldhouse.

The visitors scored first and led throughout the first period. After that, though, Goodland came back to take the lead by halftime. Fans saw six lead changes and the game tied three times before the Broncos pulled away in the final minutes to win by 13.

The loss was the second straight for the Cowboys, now 11-6 for the season.

Lakin took the lead early when Roman Lane hit a three-pointer about 25 seconds after the tipoff. The Broncos took a 17-11 advantage into the second quarter.

A six-point run halfway through the period resulted in a 10-point lead for the Broncos at 27-17. However, the Cowboys grabbed the momentum and scored 12 straight points to take a 29-27 lead. A free throw cut Goodland's lead to one, after which both teams scored eight points with Goodland holding a 37-36 lead at halftime.

Lakin scored the first six points of the third period to go ahead 42-37. After an exchange of baskets made it 44-39, Goodland senior Wyatt Dautel scored five straight on a pair of baskets and a free throw to tie the game at 44.

However, the Broncos kept the pressure on, scoring the next seven points for a 51-44 lead. A basket by senior Jase Herl in the final seconds of the third period made the score 51-46 going into the fourth quarter.

Goodland started the period with determination, scoring seven straight while keeping Lakin scoreless to go back ahead 53-51. Lane was fouled making the tying basket for the Broncos, then put his team ahead by one with the free throw.

A few seconds later, junior Mikey

Doll hit a three-pointer to put the Cowboys ahead 56-54. Lakin's Sheldon Barnhardt tied the game up again with a pair of free throws, then scored a basket that put the Broncos ahead for good.

Twice the Cowboys got to within a point after that, but with less than two minutes left, Lakin held a 69-65 lead. Goodland tried to save time by fouling, but the Broncos made seven of 10 from the charity stripe. That, along with several missed shots by the Cowboys, sealed the win for Lakin 78-65.

Doll came off the bench to lead the Cowboys with 19 points, including 12 from three-point range. He was followed by Dautel with nine. Herl and juniors Nick Angelos and Landon Williams each had eight. Senior Heath Chatfield added six, sophomore Tanner Smith four and senior Derek Fenner three.

Lane scored a game-high 24 points to lead the Broncos, one more than Barnhardt. Also scoring in double figures for Lakin were Wyatt Rice with 15 and T.J. Meyer with 10.

The Cowboys face a tough challenge again tonight in their final home game of the season when the Plainsmen of Oakley come to Goodland.

The Plainsmen are 14-3 overall after edging the Brewster Bulldogs on Tuesday 61-60. Oakley is ranked No. 5 in Class 2A this week by the Kansas Basketball Coaches Association.

The Plainsmen sit on top of the Northwest Kansas League standings at 6-0. Goodland is second at 3-1, with both Quinter and St. Francis at 3-2.

Tipoff for the boys game tonight will be around 7:30 p.m., about 20 minutes after the end of the girls' varsity game.

Both games will be broadcast live on Goodland radio KLOE (730 AM) starting the Cowgirls' pregame show around 5:10.

Fort Hays baseball faces Emporia

Two of the state's four NCAA Division II baseball teams faceoff in a doubleheader Sunday at Larks Park in Hays.

The Hornets of Emporia State University will come west to open their season against the Tigers of Fort Hays State University. The Tigers are already 3-0 after beating Kansas Wesleyan University in a doubleheader last Friday, 9-0 and 7-1, then in a nine-inning game on Saturday, 17-1.

Goodland native Landon West, a right-handed pitcher, is in his first season with the Hornets after playing his freshman and sophomore years at Cowley County Community College in Arkansas City.

Landon, the son of Daryl and Liz West of Goodland, is a 2003 graduate of Goodland High, where he lettered in football and wrestling. He played baseball on Goodland's K-18 and American Legion teams as well as the Outlaws.

Emporia State finished 41-20 last season and was 19-11 in the Mid-America Intercollegiate Athletics Association.

Pitching for the Tigers this year is junior Scott Wolf of Grinnell, who played the last two seasons at Tabor College in Hillsboro. Freshman pitcher Matt Augustine, a 2005 graduate of Colby High, is red shirting this season at Fort Hays.

The Tigers were 30-22 last year, finishing 14-12 in the Rocky Mountain Athletic Conference.

The Ichabods of Washburn University will open their season in Topeka on Sunday, Feb. 19, against Baker University. The Gorillas of Pittsburg State University opened their season last Saturday in Lawton, Okla., winning both games of a doubleheader against Cameron University. The Gorillas won the first game 4-1 and the second 2-1.
