Marvin Fred Sexson

June 19, 1919 - March 19, 2006

Marvin Fred Sexson, of Loveland, Colorado, died at the age of 86 on March 19, 2006. He was the first child born to Nellie J. and Fred O. Sexson of Ruleton, Kan. on June 19, 1919. He grew up and went to school in Goodland, Kan.

Marvin was a successful business man, and he owned and operated Horizon Travel of Colorado, Inc., in Denver, Colo., until his retirement, at which time he and his wife Bonnie moved to Loveland, Colo.

While operating the Full Service Travel Agency, with appointments in airlines, cruise ships, hotel reservations, he specialized in escorted motorcoach tours. Through his agency many friends were made as he displayed his expertise in this field.

Marvin was a lifetime member of the Elks Club in Goodland, Kan. Also, he was a past member of the SKAL Club, a social organization for executives in the travel industry, with members selected by invitation only. He enjoyed traveling, reading, fishing and socializing with friends and relatives.

He is survived by his wife Bonnie, their son Virgil and his children, Shannon and Stacie of Denver, Ashley and Lance of Loveland, and an adopted grand-daughter Dawn Pettit-Thompson and husband and their two children. Surviving also is his son Marvin Gaylord and wife Lenora, with their three children, Steven and wife Lori, Scott and wife Laura, and Kerri and husband Scott Steward and their children, giving him thirteen great-grandchildren.

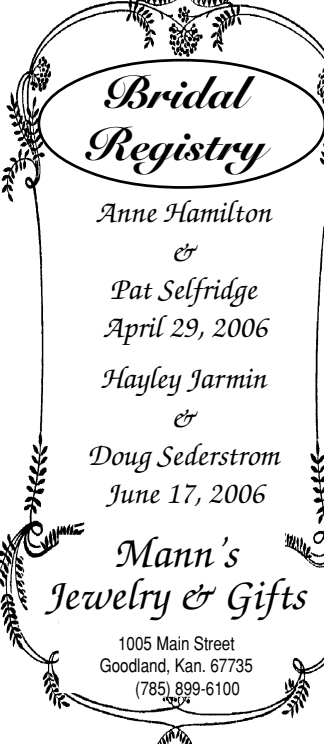

His parents, Fred and Nellie Sexson, one brother Vernon and a baby sister Betty Mae have preceded him in death.

Services did terminate at Crown Hill, with entombment at the Good Shepherd Mausoleum (7777 West 29th) Wheatridge, Colorado.
