obituaries

Warren E. Clemans

Warren E. Clemans, 84, Burlington, a retired farmer and oil distributor, died Monday, April 24, 2006, in Denver.

He was born Feb. 11, 1922, near Flagler, Colo., the seventh of nine children to James O. and Flora M. (Rupert) Clemans. As a young man, he worked on area farms.

He met Valetta V. Anderson on June 30, 1941, in church at the Gospel Hall north of Kanorado, and they married on Aug. 29, 1941, in St. Francis. They had four children and spent nearly 65 years together.

Clemans accepted Christ as his Savior on Sept. 1, 1941. He served in the Army during World War II, from 1942 to 1945, in the Pacific.

After he returned from the Army, the couple farmed in the Beaver Valley area until 1955 when they moved to Burlington. He worked at Plains Grain for 13 years and at various elevators after that. In 1978, he became the owner and manager of Clemans Oil. After retiring in 1990, he helped out at the Burlington school bus garage.

Clemans loved his yard and had beautiful flowers year after year. He loved his wife and family, which eventually included nine grandchildren and 16 great-grandchildren. He always had a smile for everyone and was sweet, caring and kind.

Preceding him in death were his parents; his stepfather; three brothers; five sisters; an infant granddaughter, Shauna Marie King; and a son-in-law, Randall J. Dreitz.

Survivors include his wife; two sons, Arlyn (Sharon) Clemans and Royce (Yvonne) Clemans, both of Burlington; two daughters, Janice (Tom) King of Eads, Colo., and Donita Dreitz of Stratton, Colo.; eight grandchildren; and 16 great-grandchildren.

Services were Friday, April 28, 2006, at the Evangelical Free

Church in Burlington with Pastor Ron Lee officiating. Burial followed in the Fairview Cemetery in Burlington.

Memorials may be made in his name in care of Equitable Savings and Loan Association, 1420 Lowell Ave., Burlington, Colo. 80807.

Love Funeral Home in Burlington made the arrangements. Condolences can be left at www.lovefuneralhomes.com.

Thurl Demaree

Thurl Eugene Demaree, 79, Hays, formerly of Goodland, a retired railroad worker, died Friday, April 28, 2006, at the Hays Medical Center.

He was born July 18, 1926, at his family’s farm home in Kanorado, the son of Ivan and Gladys (Burd) Demaree, and graduated from Kanorado High School in 1944.

Demaree served with the Army in the Pacific during World War II and the Japan Army of Occupation. On Aug. 31, 1948, he married Harriet Smith in Goodland.

Preceding him in death were his parents; a sister, Barbara Molesworth; and a brother, Dean Demaree.

Survivors include his wife; a son, Bruce (Ginger) Demaree of Wichita; two daughters, Kathy (John) Hafliger and Denise Demaree of Hays; a brother, Lowell (Carolyn) Demaree of Alva, Okla.; nine grandchildren; and nine great-grandchildren.

Services will be at 10 a.m. today, Tuesday, May 2, 2006, at St. Michael’s Episcopal Church in Hays. Graveside services and inurnment will be at 3 p.m. at the Goodland Cemetery.

Memorials may be made to the Goodland High School Alumni Scholarship for a senior who plans to attend Fort Hays State University. Arrangements were made by Bateman Funeral Home, 11th and Broadway, Box 278, Goodland, Kan. 67735.

Students to give recital to celebrate music week

A recital celebrating National Music Week will feature juniors and seniors from Goodland High School on Sunday.

The program will be at the Sunrise Christian Church, Ninth and Caldwell, at 7:30 p.m.

National Music Week, begun by Charles Tremaine in 1924, is in its 83rd year.

Tremaine was the head of the National Bureau for the Advancement of Music from 1924 to 1947. He combined sporadic events celebrating national music week into its present form.

“Music has been important throughout history,” said Birkley Barnes, publicity chair for the Goodland Federated Music Club. “It exerts a strong influence on our everyday lives and has become a powerful means to deepen our worship, express patriotic fervor or to add a joyous atmosphere to happy occasions.”

The Margaret Martin Piano Award will be presented to a senior piano student at the recital.

Everyone is invited, Barnes said. Refreshments will be served after the performance.
