The junior parliamentary procedure team of the Family, Career and Community Leaders of America gets to go to Nationals being held in Nashville, Tenn., Sunday to Thursday, July 9 to 13. This is the second time the junior team has gone.

The junior team is made up of Courtney Sheldon, Shelbi Hall Herl, Rory Kling, Brennen Clouse, T.J. Freeman, Chelsie Gausman and Julica Bonsall. All the members are freshmen.

Michael Smith got approval from the state membership to run for national office and was selected as a state board member. He is currently the Kansas State President.

Aaron Duell was selected as the member of the year for District A at state. District A is made up of 10 schools.

The senior parliamentary procedure team won a gold at the state meeting but did not do well enough to go to Nationals. The senior team is Smith, Lea Shores, Jared Hall, Jena McCall, Kerek Mason, Ashley Cebula and Sandy Johnson. This team is made up of juniors.

Kaitlin Lee and Sami Philbrick entered a display called "Happy Birthday, FCCLA."

Morgan Titus won a bronze in national programs called "Don't Be a Sucker; See the Signs."

Andrea Grieve won a gold at the Creed contest, and Taylor McLemore won a silver.

Family, Career and Community Leaders of America is a national club for students founded in 1945. It has nearly 7,000 chapters in 50 states, District of Columbia, Puerto Rico and the Virgin Islands.

It is the only career and technical club that has the family as its central focus. Before 1999, the name of the club was Future Homemakers of America.

The officers for the current school year are President Duell, Secretary Philbrick, Treasurer Katrina Cotter, Historian Johnson, Points Matt Rohr, STUCO representative Heidi Yonkey, Programs Cebula, Power of One Jordan Frazier, Announcements Julian Walls and Freshman Representative Clouse.

The district officers are President Morgan Titus, Vice President of Relations Jake Kling and Vice President of Students Taking Action for Recognition Vanessa Crotinger.

Next year's officers will be President Shores, Vice President Cebula, Secretary Johnson, Treasurer McLemore, Historians Marisa Acuff and Halli Stone, Points Sheldon, STUCO Representative Gausman, Programs Studer, Power of One Kling and Announcements Devin Mangus.

The district officers will be President Clouse, Secretary Yonkey, Vice President of Students Taking Action for Recognition and Finance Sammie Raymer and national officer candidate and Vice President of Programs Smith.

Their advisors are Sarah Short and Gwen Cebula.

Some of their community service projects include adopt a family, highway clean up, little brother/little sister and senior citizens dinner.
