

Beefing up

Bulldog track team finishes eighth at state

The Brewster High School boys track and field team tied for eighth place at the state Class 1A championships last weekend at Cessna Stadium in Wichita.

The Bulldogs scored 19 points as did Western Kansas Liberty League opponent Greeley County High of Tribune.

Senior Jonathan Collett led Brewster by winning the 3,200-meter run finishing it in 10 minutes, 8.36 seconds. Senior Karmen Selby placed second at 800 meters running it in 2:04.84. Both ran legs for the Bulldogs' 4x800-meter relay team which finished seventh in 8:48.51.

Greeley County was led by senior Chase Schneider who won the 300-meter hurdles and placed second in the 110-meter hurdles. His times were 40.59 and 15.44 seconds respectively. Junior Levi Houston placed seventh in the 3,200 finishing in 10:47.4.

The Blue Jays of Ashland High won three of 18 events on their way to the state title with Macksville second and Ness City third.

The Lady Wildcats of Claflin High won the state girls title with Baileyville, the two-time defending champion, second and Bucklin third.

Brewster senior Jonathan Collett led David Gibson of Randolph's Blue Valley High in the Class 1A 3,200-meter run Saturday.

Registration for tourney is open

There is still time to register for the 17th annual Slice of Life golf tournament, which tees off at 8:30 Sunday morning at Goodland's Sugar Hills Golf Club.

Anyone who wants to play should call Dale Schields, resource development director for the Northwest Kansas Medical Foundation, today either at work, (785) 890-6005, or at home, 890-3493.

The cost is $135 per player or $390 for a team of three. Covered are cart and greens fees, lunch, complimentary beverages during the tournament and two admissions per player to the auction, which starts at 6 p.m. Saturday at the Veterans of Foreign Wars Hall, 824 Main Ave.

The three-player teams will be divided up into four flights: Acute, Chronic, Maligner and Malady.

An awards ceremony following the tournament will honor the top three teams in each flight, plus there will be prizes for contests and side events.

The tournament, along with the auction, serve as a fund raiser for the Goodland Regional Medical Center. The money is used for equipment needed by the hospital and for scholarships as part of the foundation's effort to recruit and keep health-care workers in this area.

The cost for the acution for those not playing in the tournament is $35 per person. People wanting to attend should contact either Schields, at the numbers above, or Brenda McCants at 890-6036.

Former Kansas City Chiefs player Larry Marshall is this year's honorary chairman. Other former NFL players joining him will include Bobby Bell, Charley Johnson, Danan Hughes, Fran Lynch and Billy Thompson. Also hitting the links are former basketball players Walter Davis and Gator Rivers, and Olympic gold-medal winner Mel Pender.
